Entrepreneurial Journalism Kevin Rafter, 2018-10-19 Entrepreneurial journalism has emerged as a hot topic for 21st century journalism not just in the industry itself but also in the academic community This timely book seeks to make sense of the dramatic transformation of journalism with a specific focus on what entrepreneurialism means for the world of journalism The volume brings together leading international scholars to examine critical topics including the ethics underpinning new funding models such as crowdfunding best practices in entrepreneurial journalism education the implications of the emergence of a start up culture and differing interpretations of what is understood by the term entrepreneurialism in the field of journalism The collection analyses and discusses the future of journalism from the perspective of entrepreneurial culture drawing on relevant case studies from the United Kingdom Belgium France Spain Greece Denmark Canada and the United States This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Practice

Pulling Newspapers Apart Bob Franklin, 2008-03-07 Pulling Newspapers Apart Analysing Print Journalism explores contemporary UK national and local newspapers at a significant and pivotal moment in their development when some pundits are busily if mistakenly announcing their demise The book offers a detailed examination of features which previous studies have tended to neglect such as editorial formats aspects of newspaper design newspaper contents as well as the content of newspapers which is not generated by in house journalists Search: Theory and Practice in Journalism Online Murray Dick,2013-08-30 Whether uncovering breaking stories finding reliable background information or finding the right contributors for stories and packages there is now a wealth of information available to journalists online but where to begin In Search Theory and Practice in Journalism Online Murray Dick provides a practical and theoretical overview of the journalistic research potential in various online tools Written by a leading expert in the field the book offers experience based guidance into online search for journalism Key features Up to date coverage of advanced search the invisible web social media multimedia and the verification of online material A critical overview of theory in online ethics verification and use of social media in journalism online Original research into search theory privacy trust and rights issues online Student friendly pedagogy based upon professional practice and informed by experts in online research Search Theory and Practice in Journalism Online is essential reading for undergraduate students of digital journalism online reporting and journalism studies Redefining Trial by Media Simon Statham,2016-06-14 Redefining Trial by Media Towards a critical forensic linguistic interface applies a range of linguistic models to recast trial by media not as a sensationalist and infrequent phenomenon but as a systematic and routine process Using critical discourse analysis and cognitive linguistic models this book builds a Spectrum of Trial by Media which views juries in criminal trials as moulded by ideological media made constructions of crime The role of these media constructions is enhanced by the isolation levied on jurors by the linguistic composition of trial language and reinforced by the language strategies of legal professionals in court Critically deconstructing media portrayals of crime and forensically examining the language of criminal proceedings this book offers a redefinition of trial by media which casts the role of the press as much more prevalent in the courtroom trial than is presently appreciated What's the Point of News? Tony Harcup,2020-03-30 This book questions whether the news we get is as useful for citizens as it could or should be This international study of news is based on re thinking and re conceptualising the news values that underpin understandings of journalism It goes beyond empirical descriptions of what journalism is to explore normative ideas of what it might become if practised alongside commitments to ethical listening active citizenship and social justice It draws lessons from both alternative and mainstream media output from both journalists and scholars from both practice and theory It challenges dominant news values by drawing on insights from feminism peace journalism and other forms of critical thinking that are usually found on the margins of journalism studies This original and engaging contribution to knowledge proposes an alternative set of contemporary news values that have significant implications for the news industry for journalism education and for democracy itself Becoming the Story Lindsay Palmer,2018-01-31 The September 11 attacks produced great changes in journalism and the lives of the people who practiced it Foreign reporters felt surrounded by the hate of American colleagues for the enemy Americans in combat areas became literal targets of anti U S sentiment Behind the lines editors and bureau chiefs scrambled to reorient priorities while feeling the pressure of sending others into danger Becoming the Story examines the transformation of war reporting in the decade after 9 11 Lindsay Palmer delves into times when print or television correspondents themselves received intense public scrutiny because of an incident associated with the work of war reporting Such instances include Daniel Pearl s kidnapping and murder Bob Woodruff s near fatal injury in Iraq the expulsions of Maziar Bahari and Nazila Fathi from Iran in 2009 the sexual assault of Lara Logan and Marie Colvin s 2012 death in Syria Merging analysis with in depth interviews of Woodruff and others Palmer shows what these events say about how post 9 11 conflicts transformed the day to day labor of reporting But they also illuminate how journalists work became entangled with issues ranging from digitization processes to unprecedented hostility from all sides to the political logic of the War on Terror
