Corporate Peace Mary

Martin, 2020-01-23 Ours is an era of big companies multinational brands and global business power but also of seemingly unending conflict Corporate Peace examines how corporations respond to the life and death business of war and peace What happens when they come up against Mexican drug cartels or the Ebola epidemic in Liberia Through the experiences of behemoths such as Fiat Veolia BP and Unilever Mary Martin shows how big business is increasingly critical in building a safer world in the face of failed states health pandemics insurgencies and organised crime Can companies do more than generate profits in the poorest and most fragile parts of the world Should they also shoulder responsibilities neglected by government Martin contends that corporations must move beyond simply doing no harm or upholding human rights They are becoming part of the solution contributing expertise and investment to resolve complex issues of violence authority and law
