Children Celebrate First International Day of Play

Key Concepts

Global Play Movement Sweeps across 140 Countries

The first International Day of Play, hailed as a groundbreaking event for children worldwide, is scheduled to take place on 11 June. This historic day comes after a dedicated campaign urging the United Nations (UN) to champion play as an essential part of every child's life.

The UN, an internationally sanctioned organization fostering global unity, has long upheld a treaty that protects the rights of children, including their right to play. Yet, according to the children's charity UNICEF, millions of children around the world are unable to fulfill this fundamental activity. Astonishingly, it is estimated that approximately 685 million children currently find themselves engaged in such rather than having an
