Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World's Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together The series promotes sharing international children's books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices This volume follows Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 The World through Children's Books 2002 Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books 2006 and Bridges to Understanding Envisioning the World through Children's Books 2011 and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles Centered around the theme of the importance of stories the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0-18 years Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski author Beverley Naidoo and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010-2014 and includes

English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States. These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries. The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country. All of the more than 800 entries are recommended and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries. Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations. The entries are indexed by author, translator, illustrator, title, and subject. Back matter also includes international book awards, important organizations, and research collections, and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries. Bar Mitzvah, a History Michael

Hilton, 2014-06-01. Published by the University of Nebraska Press as a Jewish Publication Society book. Practical Aviation Security Jeffrey Price, Jeffrey Forrest, 2016-07-20. Practical Aviation Security: Predicting and Preventing Future Threats. Third Edition is a complete guide to the aviation security system from crucial historical events to the policies, policymakers, and major terrorist and criminal acts that have shaped the procedures in use today, as well as the cutting edge technologies that are shaping the future. This text equips readers working in airport security or other aviation management roles with the knowledge to implement effective security programs, meet international guidelines, and responsibly protect facilities or organizations of any size. Using case studies and practical security measures now in use at airports worldwide, readers learn the effective methods and the fundamental principles involved in designing and implementing a security system. The aviation security system is comprehensive and requires continual focus and attention to stay a step ahead of the next attack. Practical Aviation Security, Third Edition, helps prepare practitioners to enter the industry and helps seasoned professionals prepare for new threats and prevent new tragedies. Covers commercial airport security, general aviation, and cargo operations, threats, threat detection, and response systems, as well as international security issues. Lays out the security fundamentals that can ensure the future of global travel and commerce. Applies real world aviation experience to the task of anticipating and deflecting threats. Includes updated coverage of security related to spaceport and unmanned aerial systems, focusing on ICAO International Civil Aviation Organization security regulations and guidance. Features additional and updated case studies and much more. American Book Publishing Record, 1995. We Look Like the Enemy Rachel

Shabi, 2009-07-01. Rachel Shabi was born in Israel to Jewish Iraqi parents. When she was a child, her family emigrated to the United Kingdom in 1974. Their leaving reversed the spiritual trek of the Jewish Diaspora around the world, whose members wistfully repeat at the Passover tables: Next year in Jerusalem. Years later, in fact, Shabi went back to visit and to live for an extended period, but her attitude toward her former homeland is conflicted by the longstanding discrimination suffered by Arab Jews in Israel. Shortly after its creation, Israel accepted close to one million Jews from Arab lands: from Yemen, Egypt, Morocco, Syria, Tunisia, Algeria, Iraq, Iran, and Turkey. Mizrahi (Middle Eastern) Jews now make up around 50% of Israel's population. Yet Ashkenazi Jews have traditionally disparaged the Mizrahi as backward and have systematically limited their opportunities in the classroom and the workplace There is a class split writes Shabi that runs on ethnic lines She traces the history of how the Jewish Disapora lived alongside Muslims and Christians for centuries and how the dream of Jewish solidarity within Israel in the mid 20th century was fractured by ethnic discrimination as pernicious as racism in the United States Great Britain and other parts of the world Shabi combines scholarly research with intimate oral history to shed light on ethnic injustice and her personal story and passion make We Look Like the Enemy a stunning unforgettable book
