

“The Great Gatsby”

OF THE attempts to portray these restless moderns whose cynicisms and infidelities keep a family howlers hoarse none is more moving than “The Great Gatsby,” a story from the pen of F. Scott Fitzgerald, which begins in the Altoona Tribune Monday morning.

The story centers around a married couple who did not think that marriage was what it used to be—at least he said so. She had gone wrong just once with the Great Gatsby before he went to war. Then she married Tom. After the marriage Tom devoted himself to the chauffeur's wife and was quite a gay dog. It seems that she had loved Tom after her affair with Gatsby and used to sit on the sand with his head in her lap—until she discovered that he loved the chambermaid. Then comes Longueyland with Gatsby as host at a palatial home which seemed to be run by bootlegger. There were drunken parties—everybody sang and swore and got drunk. The heroine spent much time with her erstwhile Gatsby, and her husband kissed the chauffeur's wife. Then the big scene. Tired of her husband's perfidy, the heroine came to Gatsby and offered herself to him. Later it is shown that Gatsby is a bootlegger, the chauffeur shoots him and there are many other thrilling episodes.

The story is well written—as only Mr. Fitzgerald can do—and the initial installment will appear in the Tribune beginning Monday morning. Don't fail to read the opening installment—you will finish the story. Of that there is no question.
