Global Entrepreneurship Timothy M. Devinney, Gideon Markman, Torben Pedersen, Laszlo Tihanyi, 2016-06-23 The role that small and medium sized enterprises SMEs play in the economic development and growth of cities regions and nations has been an increasing subject of debate and study for the last half century This volume focuses on the opportunities and challenges that entrepreneurs and SMEs face in a world of global competition Education Abroad Anthony C. Ogden, Bernhard Streitwieser, Christof Van Mol, 2020-06-02 Recent decades have seen unprecedented growth in the number of students travelling abroad for the purpose of short term academic study As such attention is turning to the role that education abroad can have in enhancing student learning and producing global ready graduates This volume provides a succinct and accessible analysis of the existing research and scholarship around the world on a range of important areas related to contemporary education abroad providing practitioners with important implications for programming and practice Focusing on fourteen key topics relating to education abroad this accessible desktop compendium not only synthesizes what is already known but also indicates which topics need further research and how the existing literature can be applied to daily programming and practice Extending beyond student learning outcomes to look at essential topics such as institutional outcomes program models and host community outcomes this volume covers major trends in contemporary research as well as an assessment of the methodological and design challenges that are common to education abroad research The fourteen distinct topics address the broad themes of participation programming student outcomes institutional outcomes and societal outcomes and include chapters from a broad range of widely acknowledged and respected international experts Bridging the gap between scholarship and practice this accessible guide is essential reading for anyone working in higher education today and involved in shaping and managing education abroad programs It is useful for all who want to understand and leverage existing research to inform education abroad programming and practice Student Affairs by the Numbers Rishi Sriram, 2023-07-03 Student Affairs by the Numbers aims to be the go to book for student affairs professionals who want to know the basics of quantitative research and statistics for their work Books on assessment in student affairs tend to discuss processes more than research design and statistics Most books on statistics share too much information for practitioners overwhelming them and making it difficult to discern what they need to know Since these books do not use examples from student affairs it is even more difficult for practitioners to connect with new concepts Student Affairs professionals need to know how to design a study collect data analyze data interpret results and present the results in an understandable manner This book will begin by establishing the need for these skills in student affairs and then quickly move to how to develop a research culture how to conduct research how to understand statistics and concluding with how to change our research assessment behaviors in order to make higher education better for students Intercultural Horizons Volume III Lavinia Bracci, Nevin C. Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2015-10-05 This volume brings together a representative set of the papers given at the third annual Intercultural Horizons conference held in Siena Italy in October 2013 The conference attracted presenters and attendees from a variety of nations throughout five continents The papers included in this volume are drawn from a series of conference sessions in which academicians and practitioners in the field offered theoretical analyses case studies and other perspectives on intercultural studies civic engagement and related topics The volume is divided into four sections Theoretical Considerations of Intercultural Competence and Interculturalism Intercultural Development and Assessment Practical Examples and Research Civic Engagement in International and Culturally Diverse Contexts and Intercultural Education and Training The reader will find that most of the papers address a variety of intercultural topics beyond their specific chapter designations In particular the theme of second language acquisition education and use was an overarching theme that emerged from a large number of papers and presentations specifically with regards to the complexities now faced by intercultural educators and researchers as a result of the increasing dominance of English as a lingua franca both in academe and many nations The Archaeology of Childhood Güner Coşkunsu, 2015-11-16 Children existed in ancient times as active participants in the societies in which they lived and the cultures they belonged to Despite their various roles and in spite of the demographic composition of ancient societies where children comprised a large percentage of the population children are almost completely missing in many current archaeological discourses To remedy this The Archaeology of Childhood aims to instigate interdisciplinary dialogues between archaeologists and other disciplines on the notion of childhood and children and to develop theoretical and methodological approaches to analyze the archaeological record in order to explore and understand children and their role in the formation of past cultures Contributors consider how the notion of childhood can be expressed in artifacts and material records and examine how childhood is described in literary and historical sources of people from different regions and cultures While we may never be able to reconstruct every last aspect of what childhood was like in the past this volume argues that we can certainly bring children back into archaeological thinking and research and correct many erroneous and gender biased interpretations
