Madness at the Movies

James Charney, 2023-01-31 A unique exploration of how mental illness is portrayed in classic and contemporary films The study of classic and contemporary films can provide a powerful avenue to understand the experience of mental illness In Madness at the Movies James Charney MD a practicing psychiatrist and long time cinephile examines films that delve deeply into characters inner worlds and he analyzes moments that help define their particular mental illness Based on the highly popular course that Charney taught at Yale University and the American University of Rome Madness at the Movies introduces readers to films that may be new to them and encourages them to view these films in an entirely new way Through films such as Psycho Taxi Driver Through a Glass Darkly Night of the Hunter A Woman Under the Influence Ordinary People and As Good As It Gets Charney covers an array of disorders including psychosis paranoia psychopathy depression bipolar disorder obsessive compulsive disorder and anxiety

Repulsion Jeremy Carr,2021-07-01 Roman Polanski's Repulsion 1965 starring Catherine Deneuve as a repressed and tormented manicurist is a gripping visually inventive descent into paranoia and self destructive alienation Emblematic of recurrent Polanski motifs evinced in his student short films in his striking debut feature Knife in the Water 1962 and in subsequent features like Death and the Maiden 1994 Repulsion is a tour de force examination of crippling anxiety and the sinister potency of inanimate objects Repulsion amplifies the realm of psychological horror by evoking the seething impact of increasing delusion literal and figurative seclusion and the consequences of one woman's foreboding sensitivity to the unsettling world that surrounds her This Devil's Advocate considers Repulsion within the context of familiar horror tropes and the prevailing qualities of Polanski's broader oeuvre Drawing on the research of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Barbara Creed and others concerning issues of abjection the monstrous feminine and the psychology of horror spectatorship this text focuses on central themes of isolation sexuality and setting Bookended by introductory biographical details and concluding with a roundup of the film's reception Jeremy Carr situates Repulsion within the horror genre at large as well as its various off shoots such as the rape revenge subgenre There is also an analysis of the film's technical qualities from its sound design to its brilliantly low key special effects all of which define the film as Polanski's most audaciously stylish realisation of dread and unease

Adapting Sex on Screen Julian Preece,2025-10-30 Sex has always been cinema's most contested territory Adapting Sex on Screen traces that battle through three once scandalous source texts Leopold von Sacher Masoch's Venus in Furs 1870 Arthur Schnitzler's La Ronde 1900 and Frank Wedekind's Lulu plays 1895 1904 following the history of their reception from fin de siècle Central Europe to the USA in the twenty first century with a focus on their screen adaptations Julian Preece shows how directors such as Max Ophüls G W Pabst and Roman Polanski tested understanding of transgression whether in the Weimar Republic under the Hays Production Code or in the shadow of AIDS and the wake of second wave feminism His broad international corpus ranges from heritage cinema to arthouse and exploitation to Hollywood allowing him to explore the contradictions between commodification and critique and chart evolving attitudes towards alternative sexualities and minorities Preece blends adaptation and translation studies with transatlantic cultural history to show how filmmakers have both reflected and shaped social change from the first Lulu film made in Germany in 1917 to the most recent La Ronde made in New York precisely one hundred years later

Not to be Missed Kenneth Turan,2014-06-03 The images and memories that matter most are those that are unshakeable unforgettable

Kenneth Turan's fifty-four favorite films embrace a century of the world's most satisfying romances and funniest comedies, the most heart-stopping dramas and chilling thrillers. Turan discovered film as a child left undisturbed to watch Million Dollar Movie on WOR-TV Channel 9 in New York, a daily showcase for older Hollywood features. It was then that he developed a love of cinema that never left him and honed his eye for the most acute details and the grandest of scenes. Not to Be Missed blends cultural criticism, historical anecdote, and inside Hollywood controversy. Turan's selection of favorites ranges across all genres. From All About Eve to Seven Samurai to Sherlock Jr., these are all timeless films, classic and contemporary, familiar and obscure, with big budgets and small, each underscoring the truth of director Ingmar Bergman's observation that no form of art goes beyond ordinary consciousness as film does: straight to our emotions, deep into the twilight room of the soul.
