Police Services Act Use Of Force:

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement. In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order, the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency, the South African Police Service (SAPS), that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people. More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms, it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity. This book offers a unique perspective by providing in-depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa. It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy. Using the organizational theory of police integrity, the book analyzes the complex set of historical, legal, political, social, and economic circumstances shaping police integrity. A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules, their expectations of discipline within the SAPS, and their willingness to report misconduct. The book also examines the influence of the respondents' race, gender, and supervisory status on police integrity. Written in a clear and direct style, this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology, policing, sociology, political science, as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations.

Lethal Force and New Zealand Police Richard S. Shortt, 2022-08-22 This book challenges the notion that the New Zealand Police are one of only four global police services that does not have routinely armed officers. Using arguments and facts drawn from 2000 to 2019, a period of important change for the organisation and its relationship with firearms, particularly following the outrages of the Christchurch mosques terrorist massacres in 2019 and the 2020 shooting death of a young police constable in Aotearoa New Zealand, this book provides a brief history of the Police from its beginnings to the present day, with a specific focus on its relationship with firearms which contextualize the law that justifies use of lethal force in a country that has abolished the death penalty. It examines police policies, procedures, training, and structures governing deployment and use of firearms in Aotearoa New Zealand and the independent oversight that now applies to fatal and non-fatal shootings by Police. Using 43 publicly released oversight agency reports and data directly related to police shootings, such as who is being shot, this book investigates how the police are using lethal force, who is being affected, and what this might mean for the service with regards to the operational deployment of firearms and the potential for use of lethal force within the community into the future.

Policing Bodies I. India Thusi, 2021-12-21 Sex work occupies a legally gray space in Johannesburg, South Africa, and police attitudes towards it are inconsistent and largely unregulated. As I. India Thusi argues in Policing Bodies, this results in both room for negotiation that can benefit sex workers and also extreme precarity in which the security police officers provide can be offered and taken away at a moment's notice. Sex work straddles the line between formal and informal Attitudes about beauty and subjective value are manifest in formal tasks including police activities which are often conducted in a seemingly ad hoc manner However high level organizational directives intended to regulate police obligations and duties toward sex workers also influence police action and tilt the exercise of discretion to the formal In this liminal space this book considers how sex work is policed and how it should be policed Challenging discourses about sexuality and gender that inform its regulation Thusi exposes the limitations of dominant feminist arguments regarding the legal treatment of sex work This in depth historically informed ethnography illustrates the tension between enforcing a country s laws and protecting citizens human rights Policing in America Larry K. Gaines,Victor E. Kappeler,2014-07-21 In the field of law enforcement in the United States it is essential to know the contemporary problems being faced and combine that knowledge with empirical research and theoretical reasoning to arrive at best practices and an understanding of policing Policing in America Eighth Edition provides a thorough analysis of the key issues in policing today and offers an issues oriented discussion focusing on critical concerns such as personnel systems organization and management operations discretion use of force culture and behavior ethics and deviance civil liability and police community relations A critical assessment of police history and the role politics played in the development of American police institutions is also addressed as well as globalization terrorism and homeland security This new edition not only offers updated research and examples it also incorporates more ways for the reader to connect to the content through learning objectives discussion questions and Myths and Realities of Policing boxes Video and Internet links provide additional coverage of important issues With completely revised and updated chapters Policing in America Eighth Edition provides an up to date examination of what to expect as a police officer in America FCS Theory of Policing Practices L3 , Alston and Heyns on Unlawful Killings: A Compendium of the Jurisprudence of the United Nations Special Rapporteurs on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions from 2004-2016 Philip Alston,Christof Heyns,Sarah Knuckey,Thomas Probert,2020-01-01 This book provides a detailed overview of the law and policy related to unlawful killings and the right to life It is organized into the key thematic issues and types of killings that arose during the mandate of the UN Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial summary or arbitrary executions between 2004 2016 Each chapter contains an introductory overview and selected extracts from UN Special Rapporteur reports to the United Nations General Assembly and the Human Rights Council and other normative work and covers the applicable international law policy considerations and common fact scenarios Philip Alston held the mandate of United Nations Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial summary or arbitrary executions between 2004 and 2010 Christof Heyns did so from 2010 to 2016 This book was created to provide easy access to the work of the Special Rapporteurs and to be a useful guide for those studying and working to promote respect for human rights The book was edited by the two rapporteurs together with their main advisors during their tenure as mandate holders Sarah Knuckey and Thomas Probert Rules of Engagement and the International Law of Military Operations J.
