Morris, 2015-01-14 The first annual Conference of the National Centre for Christian Education at Liverpool Hope University held in July 2012 was advertised as a multi conference exploring the opportunities and dilemmas facing Christian education and educationalists at a time of significant social and demographic change when the certainties of the 1944 settlement are fast disappearing contributing to the debate about effective strategies for the enhancement of Christian education and what it might offer the diverse pluralistic society of 21st century England with its current predominantly materialistic and instrumental perspective on the purposes of education It attracted delegates from across the world and contributions from distinguished educational practitioners theorists and administrators Four main themes emerged from the papers accepted for inclusion in the Conference the politics of Christian educational provision vocation and Christian leadership the formation of teachers as Mindful Education Charlene Tan, 2021-06-30 This book provides original ideas and practical recommendations for educators in a post pandemic world We live in a world that has been upended by the COVID 19 pandemic Students around the globe have been besieged by disruptions that threaten not only their academic learning but also their mental emotional and interpersonal well being In the midst of pressing and mounting challenges how can schools ensure the total wellness of all their students Beyond reactive piecemeal and short term measures how can schools enact mindful education that pays attention to wholeness in every student Extending the current research on well being and mindfulness this book draws insights from Confucian and Christian traditions These two traditions have been selected as they are widely seen to represent and have impacted Eastern and Western civilisations respectively for millennia Informed and inspired by Confucian and Christian perspectives this book proposes that mindfulness is an orientation towards wholeness where one experiences harmony and shalom peace Mindful education is realised through A school community of ren humanity and agape love A transforming curriculum that centres on dao way and imago dei god's image Empathic teachers who are motivated by shu putting oneself in the other's place and the Golden Rule do to others as you would have them do to you and Self directed learners who develop themselves through xiuji self cultivation and spiritual disciplines Applying ancient wisdom to contemporary settings this book on promoting student well being through mindful education is a useful resource for policymakers educators researchers and general readers RE-IMAGINING CHURCH Gerald Rose, Philip

Hughes, Gary D. Bouma, 2014-11 Many church leaders are confused Patterns of ministry which worked so well in the past are no longer effective Churches which grew rapidly have ceased to grow The culture of the Western world has changed At its heart is a change in the nature of authority from tradition and reason to the authority of personal experience This book explores the changes in culture and church life Rev Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association outlines the problem the churches are facing Rev Gary Bouma Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Monash University and an Anglican Priest charts the origins of the problem The large part of the book is the work of Rev Dr Gerald Rose a senior minister in the Churches of Christ in Victoria Australia Through careful observation and detailed interviews of ministers he describes a range of ministry responses to the changing culture He explores not one solution but many the ministry of intentional mission of the charismatic movement of ministry based in relationships and of ministry rooted in classical spirituality This is a book which should be read by church leaders ministers and pastors of all denominations It provides great insight into the nature of contemporary culture and outlines positive pathways for ministry in the Western context Steward of a Living Tradition John Sullivan, 2025-05-05 This book explores what is entailed in serving as a steward of the living tradition of the Christian faith in the world of education It examines tradition as a resource leadership education as a spiritual endeavor curriculum and Christian learning and the task of connecting tradition to culture John Sullivan engages with historical perspectives and contemporary professional and cultural realities in addressing intellectual and spiritual dimensions of Christian education and the endeavor to make tradition both accessible and meaningful to those for whom it is unfamiliar Themes pervading the book include fostering a critical appreciation for and a creative appropriation of the living tradition of Christianity fluency and flexibility in sharing that tradition vocation and vulnerability and a striving for interconnectedness and integration in teaching and learning at school and university Re-Imagining the Church Robert J. Suderman, 2016-09-30 The church What has it become What was it meant to be Does it pave the way or get in the way Are we suspicious of the institutionalization of church bureaucracy Or thrilled with the relevant impact of its presence Robert J Suderman writes about the church as a practitioner His inspiration emerges out of the crossroads of biblical vision and human sincerity always tempered with frailty Years of ministry never a stranger to complexity only serve to sharpen the vision of possibility His imagination of what can be is never divorced from the realities of what is He does not bow to the common assumption that you can't get there from here Here is the only possible point of origin for us In his succinct easy to understand writing style Suderman provides insightful and thought provoking perspectives to what it means to be the church To be a people called out to participate together in God's activity in the world and to create programs and structures needed for effective ministry are two sides of the same coin This book is for dreamers and bureaucrats alike indeed it assumes that the two are indispensable pieces of God's coming presence Introduction by Tom Yoder Neufeld Reimagining the

Landscape of Religious Education Zehavit Gross, 2023-03-13 This book brings together new thinking and research on religious education's complex and evolving role in the multicultural diverse postmodern era It facilitates new realism and understanding of the current situation from empirical and reflective accounts relating to a variety of countries and political contexts as well as providing innovative methodological approaches to the study of education and religion In different contexts around the world at different levels of education and from different theoretical lenses religious education occupies a contested space The ongoing changing nature of the world due to increasing secularization rapid technological change mass immigration globalization processes conflict and challenging security issues from inter to intra state levels and with shifting geopolitical power balances generates the need to reconceptualize where religious education is positioned It claims that religious education on its own can be an agent of moral social and spiritual transformation are disputed There is significant controversy about whether special religious education that is in faith education still has a role within the post modern world

Reflections on Pope Francis's Encyclical, Laudato si' John Arthur Orr, Harry Schnitker, Mary Mills SHCJ, 2020-05-15 This volume represents a collection of essays by emerging and well established Catholic scholars on Laudato si' Pope Francis's encyclical on the environment All contributors are connected with the Maryvale Institute in Birmingham the only Vatican approved Higher Institute of Religious Sciences in the English speaking world When it appeared Laudato si' was widely welcomed by many and strongly criticised by others All agreed that the encyclical was an important voice in the environmental debate As this book suggests however Laudato si' is more than an encyclical on the environment it is a thorough examination of the human condition in the early twenty first century Essays in this volume focus on the philosophical textual ecological anthropological and theological aspects of Laudato si place it in a specific history of ideas and contemplate its meaning for the modern world Laudato si has been widely discussed in religious and secular circles alike and this book will enhance the understanding of the text for both Reimagining Ministerial Formation David Heywood,2021-04-30 The Church is currently experiencing a transition in the way it understands and practises both mission and ministry It is to be outward looking engaging with the wider community involving all its members in mission and clergy are to play the role of enablers and equippers of the ministry of the whole church However ministerial formation in colleges and courses throughout the country lags behind this emerging consensus Theological education is still largely based on academic models Reimagining Ministerial Formation offers a new way forward where ministry comes to be about the whole church and ministerial formation is about collaboration between clergy and laity It argues strongly for a shift away from front loaded training to a new focus on formation as a life long process Reimagining Faith and Abortion Fiona Bloomer,Kellie Turtle,2024-01-09 In this book faith leaders scholars and activists from around the globe provide their perspective on faith and abortion They reflect on examples of faith organisations which have provided leadership on the issue as well as examining religious approaches from Buddhist Christian Jewish Muslim and interfaith perspectives Challenging the assumption that all people of faith are anti abortion this book provides a counterpoint to right wing faith perspectives and outlines how faith communities reimagine abortion as an issue of social pastoral and theological concern Providing perspectives from the global North and South it includes settings where abortion is legal and where it is restricted and settings where abortion stigma is ever present to settings where abortion is normalised It also demonstrates the complex connections between faith and abortion how women and pregnant people are positioned in society and how morality is claimed and challenged Reimagining Development Education in Africa Olivia Adwoa Tiwaah Frimpong Kwabong,David Addae,John Kwame Boateng,2022-05-06 This edited volume uses an African centred approach to examine a renewed vision of development education in Africa The purpose of the volume is to supplant prevailing Western ideologies traditions and rhetoric in the development education discourse in Africa and to advocate for alternative paradigms knowledges beliefs and practices through the effort of dialogue between competing orientations values and experiences The book argues that Africa s development challenges are uniquely African requiring indigenous African solutions Consequently this book offers an insightful collection of case studies and conceptual papers that examine how indigenous African knowledge philosophies traditions beliefs and values shape the theory and practice of development education in Africa Reimagining Development Education in Africa exemplifies an interdisciplinary and multifaceted scholarship addressing topical issues and advances in development education in Africa The book discusses among other topics Ubuntu inspired education for sustainable development decolonising African development education Afrocentricity Globalisation and gender equality This book is a must read for scholars and students interested in understanding indigenous educational efforts aimed at promoting sustained improvements in the quality of life of African peoples

Drinking from the Same Well Lydia F. Johnson, 2011-05-09 Drinking from the Same Well is designed for those who seek a praxis oriented theological grounding in the exploration of cross cultural perspectives in the field of pastoral care and counseling It traverses the broad terrain of cultural analysis and also explores in depth a number of discrete cross cultural issues in pastoral counseling related to communication conflict empathy family dynamics suffering and healing Cultural analysis and theological reflection are situated alongside numerous case studies of persons and situations that en flesh the concepts being discussed and readers are invited to engage personally with the material through a variety of focus questions and reflective exercises This book can serve as a helpful textbook for seminarians and a useful guide for pastors and priests church study groups multicultural parishes and anyone engaged in helping ministries with persons from other cultures The goal is to develop culturally competent pastoral caregivers by providing a comprehensive and practical overview of the generative themes and challenges in cross cultural pastoral care

Towards a Critical White Theology Al Barrett, Jill Marsh, Anthony G.

Reddie,2025-03-11 Towards a Critical White Theology is a landmark text bringing together contributions from scholars and practitioners Black Postcolonial theologians and critical White theologians from the UK the USA and New Zealand exposing the dynamics of whiteness in the history and the present of the Christian church and setting an agenda for the future especially for White racialised theologians committed to dismantling whiteness With sections addressing whiteness in relation to the Bible church history education and mission congregational life the contemporary USA and public theology this book tracks the emerging of a new theological discipline of Critical White Theology that consciously follows in the wake of the long established discipline of Black liberation theology It acknowledges that so much that has passed for theology over the centuries has been White Theology without naming it as such and reaches out to its Black and Postcolonial theologian siblings in repentant receptive humility and hopeful solidarity for a future liberated from the toxic sin of racism The chapters in this book were originally published in Practical Theology and Black Theology Christian Education and the Emerging Church

Wendi Sargeant,2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos Alternatives Unincorporated

George Zachariah,2015-01-30 The victims of environmental destruction are often sidelined in eco theology and environmental discourse Movements for ecological justice fail to take into account the voice of those at the grassroots Alternatives Unincorporated presents an environmental ethics that begins with those on the margins Using the key example of the Narmada Dam in India and the popular resistance movement which built up against the project the book examines the collective action of subaltern communities in caring for their local environment The book frames these movements as theological texts that inform a life affirming earth ethics The aim of the book is to challenge prevailing social and ecological dynamics and to affirm the interconnectedness of social justice and environmental action

Art and Belief Ruth Illman,2014-09-19 Art and Belief explores communication between faiths through an examination of contemporary artistic practice The book discusses how a range of artists formulate their worldview and what motivates them to engage in dialogue These artists are engaged in a wide range of artistic forms and practice and come to dialogue from diverse religious positions The aim of the book is to question the assumptions of interreligious dialogue as a largely intellectual exercise in defining the religious other and to explore dialogue as a manifestation of interpersonal ethics

Re Imagining Christian Education For The Twenty First Century: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Re Imagining Christian Education For The Twenty First Century : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Re Imagining Christian Education For The Twenty First Century : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Re Imagining Christian Education For The Twenty First Century : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
