

The Cultural Landscape

The background of the cover is a photograph of a group of women, likely from a West African culture, wearing vibrant headscarves in shades of red, yellow, and orange. They are looking directly at the camera with neutral expressions. The image is slightly out of focus, emphasizing the colors and the human element of the landscape.

the American public After a quarter of a century of intensive research in both Israel and the U S researching all relevant archives from NSA CIA and the State Department reviewing both formerly classified and open source documents and interviewing all then living individuals directly involved in the incident the factual and documentary record is clear Cristol maintains that despite the fact that all of the official records and transcripts are now available for review the truth has proven to be of no interest to those individuals and organizations who are motivated by hidden agendas wish to keep conspiracy theories alive or are trying to feed sensational stories to the media Documenting his findings in six new chapters Cristol establishes definitively that the Israeli attack was a tragic mistake and presents a convincing argument that will be regarded as the final chapter in the long simmering debate about this incident
