on Empty is a deeply moving story of one young carer's struggle to keep his family together. It is beautifully written and thought provoking. A really special book. North Somerset Teachers Book Award. AJ's situation is described with powerful realism and yet with the very lightest of touches. He is essentially a young carer whose parents have learning difficulties but there is never a sniff of a stereotype or call for pity. Durrant makes important points about avoiding assumptions with huge subtlety, sensitivity and humour. Convincing, uplifting and immensely readable. BookTrust

Running on empty Lucas, Karen, 2004-10-13. Running on empty argues that past failure to address fundamental inequalities in the ability of low income households to access adequate transport has undermined effective delivery of welfare policies in the US and UK. Describes the new policies and initiatives being developed to address this oversight, outlines the case for including transport as an area of social policy inquiry, identifying key factors and uses case study examples of practical initiatives from both sides of the Atlantic to draw lessons for future policy and practice. The book is aimed at students, researchers, policy makers and practitioners with an interest in understanding the social effects of transport policy. The comparison between US and UK policy and practice adds an important new dimension to those familiar with the subject while its easy to read format and well illustrated case study examples make it an ideal first text for newcomers to the field.

Running on Empty Peter G. Peterson, 2004-08-01. When Bush came to office in 2001, the 10 year budget balance was officially projected to be at a surplus of 5.6 trillion. But after three big tax cuts, the bursting of the stock market bubble and the devastating effects of 9/11 on the economy, the surplus has evaporated and the deficit is expected to grow to 5 trillion over the next decade. The domestic deficit is only the half of it. Given our 500 billion trade deficit and our anemic savings rate, we depend on an unprecedented 2 billion of foreign capital every working day. If foreign confidence were to wane this could lead to the dreaded hard landing Peter G Peterson a lifelong Republican chairman of the Blackstone Group and former secretary of commerce under Nixon shatters the myths with hard facts and a harrowing view of the twin deficit's real impact Republicans and Democrats alike have mortgaged America's future through reckless tax cuts out of control spending and Enron style accounting in Congress And the situation will only get worse as the Baby Boom generation begins to retire making unprecedented demands on entitlement programs like Social Security and Medicare Despite what Bush says we are on a path that could end in economic meltdown and we simply cannot grow out of the deficit In Running On Empty Peterson sounds the warning bell and prescribes a set of detailed solutions which if implemented early will prevent the need for draconian measures later He takes us behind the politicians smoke and mirror games and forcefully explains what we must do to rescue the future of our country
