Worlds of Literacy Mary Hamilton, David Barton, Roz Ivanič, 1994 The idea behind this book is that in complex societies like our own there are different worlds of literacy that exist side by side People belong to different cultural groups we lead different lives we read and write different things in different ways and for different purposes The idea that literacy is embedded in social context that there are different literacies is now accepted This book presents a range of case studies describing some of these worlds of literacy and is carefully organised by theme so as to bring out both the differences and connections between them It will be a source book for students on courses of literacy studies The case studies span the whole age range but the book focuses particularly on the variety of uses of literacy in adult life both inside and outside of formal education The authors argue that in order to understand literacy and help people learn to read and write we must look beyond school to the everyday uses of written communication The contributors come from diverse backgrounds they include students and teachers in adult basic education higher education and schools others are community publishers and researchers several of whom are internationally known They share a commitment to plain accessible language The book is extensively illustrated and sign posted to enable readers to move easily between case studies and themes This makes it a book to dip into which can also be enjoyed by anyone concerned with the role of written communication in education and society as a whole The themes that are dealt with include different voices literacy and identity the role of literacy in making choices and change collaborative writing and creating new forms of written expression gender and literacy bilingual literacy spoken and written language children and adult learners public and private uses of literacy and bureaucratic literacy

The Student Assessment Handbook Lee Dunn, Chris Morgan, Meg O'Reilly, Sharon Parry, 2003-12-16 This book is a comprehensive guide to assessment issues particularly for those professionals who are coming to terms with the range of new pressures on their traditional teaching practices

Language and Literacy Rachel Whittaker, Anne McCabe, Mick O'Donnell, 2006-12-08 This volume examines the relationship between language and literacy from a systemic functional perspective The book starts with a retrospective view on the development of language education practices written by eminent linguistics Michael Halliday and Ruqaiya Hasan and then shows how this approach is implemented today The second section presents a detailed analysis of how considerations of literacy education are approached in educational systems around the world The contributors examine issues such as metadiscourse genre cultural politics and how systemic functional grammar can help to raise literacy standards The final section looks at literacy in more specific disciplines including history literature science and student writing The essays collected here present a comprehensive analysis of language and literacy from a systemic functional perspective written by academics at the forefront of the field It will be of interest to researchers in systemic functional linguistics or language and education

Achieving and Sustaining Institutional Excellence for the First Year of College Betsy O. Barefoot, John N. Gardner, Marc Cutright, Libby V. Morris, Charles C. Schroeder, Stephen W. Schwartz, Michael J. Siegel, Randy L. Swing, 2010-04-30

In 2002 the Policy Center on the First Year of College supported by The Pew Charitable Trusts The Atlantic Philanthropies and Lumina Foundation for Education sponsored a project to recognize colleges and universities as Institutions of Excellence in their design and execution of the first year Thirteen colleges and universities representing a broad spectrum of campus types were selected as exceptional institutions that place a high priority on the first year experience Achieving and Sustaining Excellence in the First Year of College includes case studies of each of the thirteen exemplary institutions These studies illustrate and analyze the colleges best practices in teaching assessing and retaining first year college students The individual case studies offer lessons learned and have broad potential application beyond the particular type of institution represented

Just in Time Teaching Scott Simkins, Mark Maier, 2023-07-03 Just in Time Teaching JiTT is a pedagogical approach that requires students to answer questions related to an upcoming class a few hours beforehand using an online course management system While the phrase just in time may evoke shades of slap dash work and cut corners JiTT pedagogy is just the opposite It helps students to view learning as a process that takes time introspection and persistence Students who experience JiTT come to class better prepared and report that it helps to focus and organize their out of class studying Their responses to JiTT questions make gaps in their learning visible to the teacher prior to class enabling him or her to address learning gaps while the material is still fresh in students minds hence the label just in time JiTT questions differ from traditional homework problems in being designed not only to build cognitive skills but also to help students confront misconceptions make connections to previous knowledge and develop metacognitive thinking practices Students consequently spend more time on course concepts and ideas but also read their textbooks in ways that result in more effective and deeper learning Starting the class with students work also dramatically changes the classroom learning environment creating greater student engagement This book demonstrates that JiTT has broad appeal across the academy Part I provides a broad overview of JiTT introducing the pedagogy and exploring various dimensions of its use without regard to discipline Part II of the book demonstrates JiTT s remarkable cross disciplinary impact with examples of applications in physics biology the geosciences economics history and the humanities Just in Time
