Step 1: Install your batteries

Your universal remote requires two AAA alkaline batteries (not included).

To install the batteries

1. Remove the battery compartment cover.
2. Insert the batteries, matching the polarity to the + and - inside inside the battery compartment.
3. Push the battery cover back into place.

Battery Precautions

- Do not use old and new batteries.
- Do not mix alkaline, standard battery, and rechargeable battery (NiMH or NiCd).
- Always dispose used, used or worn out batteries properly and do not use them in a hazardous area (e.g., near fire and electrical equipment).

Battery Sensor

Your universal remote control uses battery power. It automatically turns off if the battery is drained for more than 10 minutes. This means your battery life should be more than 10 minutes. This means your battery life should be more than 10 minutes. This means your battery life should be more than 10 minutes.

Step 2: Program your remote

To use this universal remote with your home entertainment system, first you need to program it to control your device. There are four ways you can program the universal remote to control your device.

1. The Auto Code Search goes automatically through all the codes for the device you're trying to control. It's the easiest method, but it can sometimes take longer than some of the other programming methods.
2. The Manual Code Search searches through the codes for your device or device. It's an easier way to the auto code search, but it can be faster.
3. The Manual Code Entry lets you enter a code from the programming code list for your device or device. It's not as easy as the other methods, but it's probably the fastest method.
4. The Manual Code Search lets you manually go through all the codes for the device you're trying to control.

Auto Code Search

The Auto Code Search goes automatically through all the codes for the device you're trying to control. When you find the code that controls your device, you can stop the search and save the code.

Do Not use without opening a new code or code code in the Auto Code Search, press the STOP key.

1. Manually turn on the device you want to control.

2. If you're programming the TV, press the TV key or TV key.

If you're programming the VCR, press the VCR key or VCR key. If you're programming the CD, press the CD key or CD key.

Then you'll see the STOP key. While you're holding down the STOP key, you can also press the STOP key for the type of device you want to control with the remote. If the STOP key is lit, the device is being programmed.

3. Press and hold the device key you want to program. While you're holding down the device key, you can also press the STOP key to enter and hold the device STOP key of the device.

4. Then, with the device key lit, press the STOP key. The device is now on.
