the News Corp phone hacking scandal means for journalism to the continued growth of television streaming and apps and the advent of tablet only newspapers Read the preface Blue Skies Patrick Parsons,2008-04-05 Cable television is arguably the dominant mass media technology in the U S today Blue Skies traces its history in detail depicting the important events and people that shaped its development from the precursors of cable TV in the 1920s and 30s to the first community antenna systems in the 1950s and from the creation of the national satellite distributed cable networks in the 1970s to the current incarnation of info structure that dominates our lives Author Patrick Parsons also considers the ways that economics public perception public policy entrepreneurial personalities the social construction of the possibilities of cable and simple chance all influenced the development of cable TV Since the 1960s one of the pervasive visions of cable has been of a ubiquitous flexible interactive communications system capable of providing news information entertainment diverse local programming and even social services That set of utopian hopes became known as the Blue Sky vision of cable television from which the book takes its title Thoroughly documented and carefully researched yet lively occasionally humorous and consistently insightful Blue Skies is the genealogy of our media society FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission,2016 Why TV Is Not Our Fault Eileen R. Meehan,2005-11-03 For more than five decades we've been told by pundits commentators advertisers scholars and politicians that television is both a window on the world and a mirror reflecting our culture We've been led to believe that it shows us the world's events through news programs and through entertainment programs reflects the preferences values beliefs and understandings shared by most Americans We're told that if you don't like what you see on TV don't blame the industry blame yourself This book dispels the myth that the television industry is just giving viewers the programming they want to see and thus we as viewers are responsible for the existence of shows like Fear Factor and yet another Survivor In fact Eileen Meehan explains viewers exert no demand in the market for ratings advertising slots program production or telecasting She also counters the idea that TV programs reflect our culture directly Introducing us to the political economy of television Meehan covers programming corporate strategies advertising the misnomer of competition among networks and organizations that seek more industry accountability She tells us why TV isn't our fault_and who's really to blame Cable Vision ,1996 Media and Digital Management Eli M.
