IS INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACCOUNTANT'S COMPETENCE, EXPERIENCE, AND OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION AVAILABLE?

Appropriated Information

Accountant's competence is a relatively straightforward concept to understand. The information was requested to allow readers the basic information to identify what are professional qualifications and limited degree of non-quantitative social factors associated with competence. The information is to be used when the reader is the least likely to have been trained as an accountant. Competence and experience are not the same, and the two are not always in direct proportion. The information was requested to provide a general overview of the accountant's competence, including the degree of experience, and providing information on the accountant's ability to perform tasks in relation to the accountant's role.
