New Ecclesiology & Polity: The United Church of Christ Clyde J. Steckel, 2009-10-06 In New Ecclesiology and Polity Steckel argues that the United Church of Christ ecclesiology and its polity have an urgent need to be re examined and re shaped if the church is to be a faithful and strong ministry in the post modern world He describes the transition from modernity to post modernity focusing on ways the United Church of Christ is aware of these transitions in the life of the church but no awareness of how the denominational governing structures undermine faithful mission in a post modern world

Shattering the Illusion Tracy J. Trothen, 2012-09-01 Shattering the Illusion is the first book to gather and comparatively analyze policies addressing child sexual abuse complaints in a selection of religious institutions in Canada Although there is a substantial body of literature regarding Christianity and sexual abuse very little of it focuses on religious institutions in Canada and their respective policies In the foreword Tracey J Trothen summarizes the Cornwall Inquiry out of which this book arose She then examines the Roman Catholic Church The United Church of Canada the Anglican Church the Mennonite Church Islam and the Canadian Unitarian Council Unitarian Universalist Association describing in detail the evolution and particular content of policies and procedures that address child sexual abuse complaints directed at paid and volunteer faith community representatives and or leaders She identifies differences and common themes among the approaches taken by the institutions and provides a summary table for an accessible comparative overview Child sexual abuse is not new but the emergence of policies to address abuse complaints within religious institutions is This book identifies significant and shared causal factors behind the emergence of policy and reviews their content carefully This review will serve as a significant tool for furthering the development of such policies Christian Law Norman
