Ricci M.D.,2018-03-14 A riveting expos of child abuse in America and how the newest breed of pediatricians determines what happened why and at whose hands Although more than one million children are abused each year in the United States child abuse often remains a secret to family members professionals and politicians who neither see nor understand it Child abuse pediatricians are the newest breed of pediatricians specialized in exposing abuse With detective like acumen child abuse pediatricians deduce through careful medical analysis who has abused and who has been abused Describing the most compelling cases among the thousands that they have evaluated author Lawrence Ricci reveals the trauma pain disability and sometimes death that abused children experience at the hands of trusted adults This gripping look at the dark side of American families is about good parents and poor ones perpetrators and victims and collateral victims such as innocent family members It is also about the professionals who have made it their career to expose child abuse and to treat children who have suffered from it The conclusion calls for systematic changes that could help to stem the tide of child abuse

About Ben Robert M Reece,2024-10-15 Nothing in his worst nightmares could have prepared Ben Levinson for what befell him in 1952 as a twenty three year old medical student With legs paralyzed from poliomyelitis he wondered how he could function as a doctor And how could he marry have a family teach his children how to kick a ball or swing a bat When Ben was ten years old his Uncle Abraham came to live with his family after escaping Nazi Germany in 1939 He had been a physician in the slums of Hamburg ministering to the city s poor He became Ben s role model and counsel as he fulfilled his dream to be a doctor With help from his parents and wife Ben rose above his disability and shaped new paths in pediatrics He raised awareness of underappreciated pediatric conditions lead poisoning child abuse and neglect malnutrition toxic childhood ingestions injuries arising from defective products and developmental disorders Ben was admired for his devotion to patients boundless energy and comprehensive knowledge He was considered the pediatricians pediatrician And like his Uncle Abraham Ben delivered optimal medical care to children of the inner city poor Most of all he was respected for his resilience in the face of adversity His pioneering efforts to eradicate childhood lead poisoning set new standards for community and public health He married outside of his religion and raised two children with his Irish Catholic wife Cathy Their wedded lives were successful by virtue of flexible and supportive parents and the couple s dedication courage and determination *Report Arkansas.
