- Morning Started early with a trip to the Port Farmers Market. The lockdown has been rough on the farmers and vendors there. I got there super early and left as quickly as I could but I later learned from one of the farmers there that the police had blocked the access roads to the market due to unrelated crowding. He sent a post out in the afternoon begging clients to come & buy the produce he had left for pennies. I felt so bad for him and I'm not sure he'll bother to come to the market at all next week. I really hope that he does, though.

- Snow peas, kara kara oranges and squashes are in season, so I bought some. There's a pasta dish with squash and snow peas in my future.

- Then went to "Breads Bakery". They have shut down their Port store but their main bakery is still going. The place wasn't as busy as

Science the "write" Way Jodi Wheeler-Toppen,2011 Writing skills are high on the list of real world requirements for all students including science students Every scientific discipline needs professionals who can ably communicate in writing Scientists must be able to describe their proposed studies for funding considerations track their observations and results in their own notes describe their experimental protocols for their peers to replicate and synthesize their work to the wider world community Scientific and Humanistic Dimensions of Language Kurt R. Jankowsky,1985-01-01 A collection of papers on Language teaching Bilingualism Language testing Contrastive analysis Language acquisition and performance Language thought and meaning Linguistic and literary analysis Lexical and terminological studies Language policy and language planning Business Journal ,1906 Write It on Your Heart Carolyn Sutton,2004 A mini course on how to journal with an overview of 15 different journaling methods including pointers on how to make your spiritual walk more practical and rewarding Teens Together Grief Support Group Curriculum Linda Lehmann,Shane R. Jimerson,Ann Gaasch,2013-05-13 The texts focus on preschool aged children children in kindergarten through grade two children in grades three through six and teenagers Each curriculum contains ten ninety minute sessions that should be implemented over a period of ten weeks By employing age appropriate themes to engage the child and provide continuity throughout the sessions the division of material within the curricula assures that the activities reflect the developmental level of the grieving child or adolescent Each person grieves differently and Grief Support Group Curriculum addresses the issues related to mourning while recognizing the importance of individuality in grieving Resources in Education ,2001-10 From Principles of Learning to Strategies for Instruction-with Workbook Companion Robert J. Seidel,Kathy C. Perencevich,Allyson L. Kett,2007-09-23 From Principles of Learning to Strategies for Instruction Part One The purpose of this book is to help educators and training developers to improve the quality of their instruction Unlike other available works the text is not limited to a particular theoretical position Nor is it like many of the instructional design texts which ignore the learning literature Rather it draws upon any and all of those research based principles regardless of learning theory which suggest heuristics to guide instructional strategies The approach of the authors is unique in that they develop a framework or model taxonomy for tasks through which the principles of learning can be related to particular learning processes suggesting distinctive strategies for specific instructional tasks The authors present a four stage model that includes acquisition automaticity near term transfer and far term transfer Workbook Companion Part Two In this Workbook Companion the strategies presented in the original book are expanded by supplying practical and specific strategies to implement of a variety of other subject matters These strategies are based on the needs which the authors currently see and cite in existing educational systems Each chapter concentrates on providing recommended instructional strategies and practical exercises for a specific target group high school age adolescents Contributors supply strategies in the different learning domains including Cognitive Psychomotor Affect and Interpersonal and each individual is responsible for training teachers developing and or evaluating curricula for such training and educating high school students through the development and implementation of curricula Developed for both new and experienced teachers developing curricula for high school adolescents the goal of the Workbook Companion is to provide those in the field of education with strategies to incorporate each of the four domains into their lesson plans regardless of subject area
