Judith A. Langer, distinguished research professor, University at Albany.

Readers of Christine Dawson's new book might be surprised to find themselves in a novelistic world where the literary characters are women who through talk and writing act in and on their complex lives. They are teachers, yes, but they are also thoughtful mothers and daughters, wives and friends and ready companions. This is a newly liberated notion of a writing group of women who teach and a practical guide to those readers inspired to start their own group.
