

Autobiography

My name is Michael Smith and I was born on the 30th of August, 1967 in Long Beach, California. My parents were Eddie Smith and Joan Smith. Both of my parents are deceased. My mom died at the age of 57 in 1994 from lung cancer which was the result of smoking her whole lifetime. My father died at the age of 69 in 2006 from a massive heart attack, which was also the likely result from a lifetime of smoking. Fortunately I have been smart enough to avoid that bad habit.

My early childhood was a typical middle class environment circa the 1960's. My dad worked for Simpson Buick as a parts salesman and my mom was a stay at home mother. I had a happy, normal childhood as an only child, leaving me somewhat spoiled. My mom and dad divorced when I was eight years old and both remarried within a year or so of the divorce. My dad remained married to my stepmom Bev until his death. My mom would marry two more times. My first stepdad Vince became a big part of my life and I maintained close contact with him until his death in 2006, two days after my real dad died. Yes, that was a very bad week, losing both of my dads.

Growing up with split parents was not especially difficult since each of my parents kept me out of their divorce and they got along fine at events where both of them were present. I lived with my mom until I was 16 and in high school. By my sophomore year in high school I had begun to hang around with friends that got me into a lot of trouble with a number of things including smoking pot and drinking. I was rapidly heading down a negative path, but was fortunate enough to notice it before I had done any serious damage. I moved in with my dad and changed high schools and friends.

Routledge International Handbook of Police Ethnography Jenny Fleming, Sarah Charman, 2023-01-31 Ethnography has a long history in the humanities and social sciences and has provided the base line in the field of police studies for over 60 years We have recently witnessed a resurgence in ethnographic practice among police scholars and this Handbook is a response to that revival Students and academics are returning to the ethnography arena and the study of police in situ to explain the evocative worlds of the police The list of ethnographic sites is vast and all have fed the rejuvenation of ethnographic endeavour Together they suggest innovation theoretical depth broad geographical boundaries multi site experiments and multi disciplinarity all of which are central to the exploration of police and policing in the twenty first century This Handbook encapsulates the revival of police ethnography by exploring its multidisciplinary field and cataloguing the ongoing ethnographic work It offers an original and international contribution to the field of police studies and research methods providing a comprehensive and overarching guide to police ethnography We see the previous classics in every page and still note the influence of the early ethnographers At the same time we see the innovative breadth and diversity of these narratives The aim of this Handbook is to highlight the mosaic that is police ethnography at a point in time and note with pleasure its contribution to the field once more Ethnography may be messy difficult and at times uncooperative but its results offer a unique insight into the perspectives of people and organisations that can hide in plain sight An accessible and compelling read this Handbook will provide a sound and essential reference source for academics researchers students and practitioners engaged in police and criminal justice studies

My Autobiography the Prequel: Volume 1, the Conception of "thy Death Valley House" for Beatty, Nevada Martin J. Blahnik, MD, the Desert Doc, 2024-07-24 This is the first of a three volume memoir in the author's provocative tell all journey to feature the artistic side of the human condition As such there are matters that go well beyond Dr Blahnik's professional career as a physician and scientist Yet they are the unbreakable rules of the Scientific Method that guide our deep understanding of the Darwinian evolution of the human mind the DNA driven emergence of the psychotic mental illnesses and what we call human creativity In this first volume the lively narrative quickly connects us to the author's True Love for the American desert lands indeed the desert is his mistress in particular Death Valley National Park Then the whimsical adventure travels to Europe to Paris and Berlin but also elsewhere along the way always with a keen interest and focus on thought provoking matters of history All three books have the words in their titles thy Death Valley House for Beatty Nevada It is the artist's legacy objective to build this house in the small historic mining town certified as the Gateway to Death Valley called Beatty Given the author's decades of experience in Death Valley as a professional landscape photographer his very long Chapter Six dramatically profiling the 1960s Charles Manson hippie cult in Death Valley Country is something whereby Dr Blahnik has been duly authorized to make the claim with confidence No one can tell this story of Charles Manson in Death Valley in the manner that I have

Furthermore it is decidedly engaging and indeed surprising to observe the extent to which the history of some members of the cult serves as a foil to the author's character. The Ascent of the Detective Haia Shpayer-Makov, 2011-09-29. Explores the diverse and often arcane world of English police detectives during the formative period of their profession from 1842 until the First World War with special emphasis on the famed detective branch established at Scotland Yard. Officer 187 Paul Lozada, 2021-03-25. This is a true story of San Francisco's most decorated and most investigated undercover cop Paul Lozada. Follow Paul's journey throughout his career as he recounts near-death experiences, leaning into his faith, navigating fears as a family man, and confronting political barriers to uncover police corruption within the San Francisco Police Department. Don't be swayed by the badge number Paul stood against the city's dirty cops, inequality, and racism poisoning the ranks of the police force. Officer 187 became a liability, a symbol for the demise of department corruption and the powers at hand that made every effort to silence him.

The Scottish Police Officer Daniel Donnelly, 2014-05-16. The structure of policing is undergoing change in Scotland at present, and the profile of the police officer differs from that of the past. This book takes an informative approach and offers a unique account and insight into the Scottish police organisation, describing the Scottish police officer from the point of recruitment through to training, development, and specialist policing. Written by an ex-senior police officer, this book examines how the qualified police officer goes about his/her daily work, policing, and how this has changed over time as a result of organised crime, terrorism, and the changing priorities of the public and politicians. The contribution of non-police officers, such as police civilian staff, auxiliaries, and the private sector, plays a key role in the policing of Scotland in the 21st century and is considered at length. As police supervision and management is crucial to the organisation's success, the subjects of personnel development, promotion, and management in the police are examined, with comment on the suitability of the system in the 21st century. The book concludes with commentary on the future profile of the Scottish police officer and makes some general comparison with their colleagues in the rest of the UK and European Union This will be an essential text for police officers in Scotland and elsewhere and students and academics in the areas of law politics management police studies criminology and criminal justice
