

Asking For Money To Parent Letter

Dear father,

How are you? I hope that mom and Hanna are also fine there. I have written this letter to you because our School is taking all the students of class ninth and tenth to an educational tour of California.

The tour will consist of a seminar of a well-known scientist, D.R. Bryant Roger and we will get to visit the national university of information and technology and a visit to some historical landmarks in California like the gold discovery state historic park and old town San Diego state history park.

To go on this trip we have to Submit an amount of 500 dollars to our class teachers and I only have a sum of 100 dollars in my bank account.

I really want to attend this trip and because it will be a good enhancement for my knowledge and I request you to please transfer me 400 dollars to my bank account in advance as soon as you can do, so I can submit the amount to go to the trip. Take care of mom Hanna and yourself

Thank you

Your loving son

Ron

explores how the globalization of humanitarian aid was linked to new practices of global intimacy that enabled donors to build personal relationships with Chinese children across geographic and cultural divides Drawing on hundreds of letters written by Chinese children to foreign sponsors and extensive research in Chinese archives Neubauer shows how China's Nationalist and Communist parties mobilized the emotional bonds between children and sponsors to secure international support for their competing political projects By the 1950s child sponsorship and international adoption had become the most hotly contested humanitarian programs in Cold War East Asia Upending the conventional view of humanitarianism as a tool of Western influence The Adoption Plan demonstrates that it was often the Chinese recipients of aid who were best able to control its material and ideological uses Oversight on Education for All Handicapped Children Act, 1979 United States.
