The Music of Peggy Glanville-Hicks Victoria Rogers,2017-07-05 Peggy Glanville Hicks 1912 1990 is an Australian composer whose full significance has only recently been appreciated Born in Melbourne Australia she transcended the gendered expectations of her upbringing and went on to become a fine composer and a highly influential figure in the vibrant musical life of New York after the Second World War Following early composition studies with Fritz Hart in Melbourne Glanville Hicks moved to London where she studied with Ralph Vaughan Williams then to Paris where she was taught by the great pedagogue Nadia Boulanger Her migration to the USA in 1941 shaped the musical direction of her late works After a brief neoclassical phase she joined the small group of American composers who were using non Western musics as their inspirational well spring including Colin McPhee Alan Hovhaness Lou Harrison and Paul Bowles During this period she also forged an illustrious career as a music journalist and arts administrator working tirelessly to promote new music and the careers of young composers In the late 1950s she retreated to Greece to write the big works most notably the operas which lie at the heart of her creative output Her compositional career ended prematurely and tragically in 1967 following surgery the previous year for a life threatening brain tumour Against all medical expectations she went on to live for a further 24 years returning to Australia in 1975 amidst a dawning recognition that one of the country s most significant composers had returned Glanville Hicks s career as a composer is impressive by any measure She produced over 70 finely crafted works including operas ballets concertos instrumental chamber pieces songs and choral works The story of her life has been told in the biographies This book traces the development of her musical language from the English pastoral style of the early works through the neoclassicism of the middle period to the melody rhythm concept of the late works Music and Exile in Francoist Spain Eva Rodriguez, 2016-09-17 The Spanish Republican exile of 1939 impacted music as much as it did literature and academia with well known figures such as Adolfo Salazar and Roberto Gerhard forced to leave Spain Exile is typically regarded as a discontinuity an irreparable dissociation between the home country and the host country Spanish exiled composers however were never totally cut off from the musical life of Francoist Spain 1939 1975 be it through private correspondence public performances of their work honorary appointments and invitations from Francoist institutions or a physical return to Spanish soil Music and Exile in Francoist Spain analyses the connections of Spanish exiled composers with their homeland throughout 1939 1975 Taking the diversity and heterogeneity of the Spanish Republican exile as its starting point the volume presents extended comparative case studies in order to broaden and advance current conceptions of and debates surrounding exile in musicology and Spanish studies In doing so it significantly furthers academic research on individual composers including Salvador Bacarisse Julian Bautista Roberto Gerhard Rodolfo Halffter Julian Orbon and Adolfo Salazar As the first English language monograph to explore the exiled composers from the perspectives of historiography music criticism performance and correspondence Eva Moreda Rodriguez s vivid reconception of the role of place and nation in twentieth century music history will be of particular interest for scholars of Spanish music Spanish Republican history and exile and displacement more broadly
