Bullying and Behavioural Conflict at Work Lizzie Barmes, 2015-11-19 In an empirical study of the interaction between law adjudication and conflicts about behaviour in the workplace Lizzie Barmes analyses how labour and equality rights operate in practice in the UK Arguing that individual employment rights have a Janus faced quality simultaneously challenging and sustaining existing distributions of power between management and employees she calls for legal intervention at work to focus on resolving tensions between collective and individual concerns across the range of workplaces and to stimulate the expression and reconciliation of different viewpoints in the implementation and enforcement of individual legal entitlements Based on extensive primary research the volume surveys and analyses experiences and attitudes towards negative behaviour in the workplace and explains relevant employment and equality law as it has developed from 1995 to the present day covering the major case law and legislative developments over this time This book provides qualitative analysis of authoritative UK judgments about behavioural conflict at work from 1995 to 2010 as well as of interviews with senior managers and senior lawyers allowing the reader first hand insight into the influence of law and legal process on problems and conflict at work Creative Arts in Humane Medicine Cheryl L. McLean, 2014-01-24 Creative Arts in Humane Medicine is a book for medical educators practitioners students and those in the allied health professions who wish to learn how the arts can contribute toward a more caring and empathic approach to medicine Topical research and inspiring real life accounts from international innovators in the field of humanistic medicine show how the creative arts in varied forms can contribute toward greater learning and understanding in medicine as well as improved health and quality of life for patients and practitioners Cleaning Up Susana P. Miranda, 2023-04-04 This fascinating book uncovers the little known surprisingly radical history of the Portuguese immigrant women who worked as night time office cleaners and daytime cleaning ladies in postwar Toronto Drawing on union records newspapers and interviews feminist labour historians Susana P Miranda and Franca Iacovetta piece together the lives of immigrant women who bucked convention by reshaping domestic labour and by leading union drives striking for workers rights and taking on corporate capital in the heart of Toronto s financial district Despite being sidelined within the labour movement and subjected to harsh working conditions in the commercial cleaning industry the women forged critical alliances with local activists to shape picket line culture and make an indelible mark on their communities Richly detailed and engagingly written Cleaning Up is an archival treasure about an undersung piece of working class history in urban North America Hearings United States.
