Please type your responses in blue font.

1. Communication Journal Response #1: What are your fears about this class? What do you hope to accomplish this year in this class? What can I do to make you feel more comfortable?
My only fear about this class is having a voice crack in the middle of a speech. This year, I hope to be more articulate when I speak as well as having good hand gestures whilst speaking. I'm already comfortable, so there's nothing much on the teacher's part, but there are a lot of improvements I can do on my part to help me feel more comfortable speaking in front of an audience.
2. Communication Journal #2:
"Public speaking is no more difficult than breathing, using chopsticks, or tying a bow tie. The mysterious becomes simple... once you know how to do it."
—Charles Osgood, news commentator and author
3. Communication Journal #3:
"Never before has it been so essential to learn to separate the true from the false. We have come to put great emphasis on education in science and engineering. But speech, rather than science or engineering, may actually hold the key to the future." -Francis Horn, University of Rhode Island
Former President
4. Communication Journal #4:
Partner work - Did communication take place?
5. Communication Journal #5:
What is the purpose of a demonstration speech?
What could be some of the problems encountered during this speech preparation and process?
6. Communication Journal #6:
"Communication is a skill that you can learn. It's like riding a bicycle or typing. If you're willing to work at it, you can rapidly improve the quality of every part of your life." -Brian Tracy
Do you agree or disagree with this statement? Why or why not? Explain.
7. Communication Journal #7:
 - Have you ever told a lie or? How did you feel while you were lying? Do you think the receiver (decoder) was able to tell that you were falsifying the truth?
