Index* ,1979 TV Guide Stephen F. Television Toby Miller, 2003 Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, 1959 Filmed Television Drama, 1952-1958 William Hawes, 2002-01-09 This work examines the change from live to filmed television dramas during the period 1952 1958 and the characteristics and programs that are most associated with filmed television drama Along with many technical changes that had to be made in the industry in order to convert live television to filmed television came an interesting social one The American society in general was developing a growing interest in the lives of ordinary people and television moved with them offering more programs that concentrated on the middle and lower classes Because of the inherent qualities of filming television began to feature more documentary like realism began to broaden its interpretation of traditional romantic escapism to include more outer space and supernatural science fiction began to better fulfill materialistic desires through well designed enjoyable commercials and began to offer the best dramas and most popular personalities often leading viewers to greater self appreciation and richer lives This work focuses on the important anthology programs and specials that were on the air from 1952 to 1958 such as Kraft Television Theatre Philco Television Playhouse and The Hallmark Hall of Fame filmed serials like Colgate Theatre Amos n Andy and I Love Lucy and the challenges of converting from live to filmed television drama Women of Blaxploitation Yvonne D. Sims, 2015-03-26 With the Civil Rights movement of the sixties fresh in their perspective movie producers of the early 1970s began to make films aimed toward the underserved African American audience Over the next five years or so a number of cheaply made so called blaxploitation movies featured African American actresses in roles which broke traditional molds Typically long on flash and violence but lacking in character depth and development this genre nonetheless did a great deal toward redefining the perception of African American actresses breaking traditional African American female stereotypes and laying the groundwork for later feminine action heroines This critical study examines the ways in which the blaxploitation heroines of the early 1970s reshaped the presentation of African American actresses on screen and to a certain degree the perception of African American females in general It discusses the social political and cultural context in which

blaxploitation films emerged The work focuses on four African American actresses Pam Grier Tamara Dobson Teresa Graves and Jeanne Belle providing critical and audience response to their films as well as insight into the perspectives of the actresses themselves The eventual demise of the blaxploitation genre due to formulaic plots and lack of character development is also discussed Finally the work addresses the mainstreaming of the action heroine in general and a recent resurgence of interest in black action movies Relevant film stills and a selected filmography including cast list and plot synopsis are also included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here To Be Continued... Robert C. Allen, 2002-01-04 To Be Continued explores the world's most popular form of television drama the soap opera From Denver to Delhi Moscow to Manchester audiences eagerly await the next episode of As the World Turns The Rich Also Weep or Eastenders But the popularity of soap operas in Britain and the US pales in comparison to the role that they play in media cultures in other parts of the world To Be Continued investigates both the cultural specificity of television soap operas and their reception in other cultures covering soap production and soap watching in the U S Asia Europe Australia and Latin America The contributors consider the nature of soap as a media text the history of the serial narrative as a form and the role of the soap opera in the development of feminist media criticism To Be Continued presents the first scholarly examination of soap opera as global media phenomenon Television Program Master Index Charles V. Dintrone, 1996 Television history has become one of the hottest areas of research in popular culture Because the field is relatively new and so wide ranging no matter what one is researching much of the relevant material will be found scattered through numerous other works frustrating scholarly progress This work makes the television researcher's job easier by providing a single index to 341 books that include information on 1 002 shows Most of the books deal exclusively with television though some autobiographies biographies Congressional hearings and works on communication and the media are also indexed For a show to be included it must have been carried on NBC CBS ABC or Fox and must have been a series Shows on PBS are generally not included though exceptions have been made for Sesame Street and Mister Rogers Neighborhood Television Programming for Children United States. Federal Communications Commission. Children's Television Task Force, 1979 The Columbia History of American Television Gary Richard Edgerton, 2007 Richly researched and engaging The Columbia History of American Television tracks the growth of TV into a convergent technology a global industry a social catalyst a viable art form and a complex and dynamic reflection of the American mind and character Renowned media historian Gary R Edgerton follows the technological progress and increasing cultural relevance of television from its prehistory before 1947 to the Network Era 1948 1975 and the Cable Era 1976 1994 He considers the remodeling of television's look and purpose during World War II the gender racial and ethnic components of its early broadcasts and audiences its transformation of postwar America and its function in the political life of the country In conclusion Edgerton takes a discerning look at our current Digital Era and the new forms of instantaneous communication that continue to change

Delmont, 2016-03-01 Busing in which students were transported by school buses to achieve court-ordered or voluntary school desegregation became one of the nation's most controversial civil rights issues in the decades after Brown v Board of Education 1954 Examining battles over school desegregation in cities like Boston, Chicago, New York, and Pontiac Why Busing Failed shows how school officials, politicians, courts, and the news media valued the desires of white parents more than the rights of black students and how antibusing parents and politicians borrowed media strategies from the civil rights movement to thwart busing for school desegregation This national history of busing brings together well-known political figures such as Richard Nixon and Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley with less well-known figures like Boston civil rights activist Ruth Batson, Florida Governor Claude Kirk,

Pontiac housewife and antibusing activist Irene McCabe and Clay Smothers the self proclaimed most conservative black man in America This book shows that busing failed to more fully desegregate public schools because school officials politicians courts and the news media valued the desires of white parents more than the rights of black students Provided by publisher North Carolina Reports North Carolina. Supreme Court,1956 Cases argued and determined in the Supreme Court of North Carolina Conservative Bias Bryan H. Thrift,2016-09-27 Conservative Bias examines one of the most notorious figures of modern American politics Jesse Helms Thrift shows that Helms was not merely a right wing demagogue but rather a brilliant media mastermind who built a national movement from a little television soundstage in Raleigh Neil J Young Princeton University In this careful thoughtful and thoroughly researched study Bryan Hardin Thrift provides the first comprehensive study of Jesse Helms s long career as a conservative journalist and television ideologue prior to his long tenure as a U S senator from North Carolina William A Link author of Righteous Warrior Jesse Helms and the Rise of Modern Conservatism Traces a little known but pivotal phase of Helms s pre senatorial career and explains how the future New Right leader used the power of local television broadcasts in the 1960s to forge a new ideology that moved the nation to the right Daniel K Williams author of God s Own Party Before Bill O Reilly and Glenn Beck there was Jesse Helms From in front of a camera at WRAL TV Helms forged a new brand of southern conservatism long before he was a senator from North Carolina As executive vice president of the station Helms delivered commentaries on the evening news and directed the news and entertainment programming He pioneered the attack on the liberal media and his editorials were some of the first shots fired in the culture wars criticizing the influence of immoral entertainment Through the emerging power of the household television Helms established a blueprint and laid the foundation for the modern conservative movement Bryan Thrift mines over 2 700 WRAL TV Viewpoint editorials broadcast between 1960 and 1972 to offer not only a portrait of a skilled rhetorician and wordsmith but also a lens on the way the various and at times competing elements of modern American conservatism cohered into an ideology couched in the language of anti elitism and traditional values Decades prior to the invention of the blog Helms corresponded with his viewers to select refine and sharpen his political message until he had reworked southern traditionalism into a national conservative movement The realignment of southern Democrats into the Republican Party was not easy or inevitable and by examining Helms s oft forgotten journalism career Thrift shows how delicately and deliberately this transition had to be cultivated Bryan Hardin Thrift teaches history at Johnston Community College
