Political Economy for Human Rights Manuel Couret

Branco,2019-06-05 Over time there has been a miscommunication between mainstream economics and human rights that has paved the way to a justificatory ideology that validates the submission of human rights to the logic of market capitalism This book shows how the discourse of mainstream economics is intrinsically opposed to the strengthening of human rights and outlines the principles upon which a human rights based political economy can be built Considering a variety of recognized human rights such as the right to water and sanitation the right to social security the right to work cultural freedom and democracy this book describes how mainstream economics theory conflicts with these rights and explores alternative modes of thinking that incorporate human rights concerns into economics Moreover the book also reflects on the teaching of political economy for human rights It sets out that a political economy favourable to human rights must be pluralist interdisciplinary participatory de commodified non utilitarian and non consequentialist The author proposes that it must not only assume the performative character of economics but also and especially its transformative purpose Political Economy for Human Rights will offer students academics activists and policy makers useful tools to understand some of the main contradictions of contemporary societies and new paths leading to a more just and fraternal world It will also be of great interest to the general public concerned with human rights and economic issues Decolonising Conflicts, Security, Peace, Gender, Environment and Development in the Anthropocene Úrsula Oswald Spring,Hans Günter Brauch,2021-01-25 In this book 25 authors from the Global South 19 and the Global North 6 address conflicts security peace gender environment and development Four parts cover I peace research epistemology II conflicts families and vulnerable people III peacekeeping peacebuilding and transitional justice and IV peace and education Part I deals with peace ecology transformative peace peaceful societies Gandhi s non violent policy and disobedient peace Part II discusses urban climate change climate rituals conflicts in Kenya the sexual abuse of girls farmer herder conflicts in Nigeria wartime sexual violence facing refugees the traditional conflict and peacemakingprocess of Kurdish tribes Hindustani family shame and communication with Roma Part III analyses norms of peacekeeping violent non state actors in Brazil the art of peace in Mexico grass roots post conflict peacebuilding in Sulawesi hydrodiplomacyin the Indus River Basin the Rohingya refugee crisis and transitional justice Part IV assesses SDGs and peace in India peace education in Nepal and infrastructure based development and peace in West Papua Peer reviewed texts prepared for the 27th Conference of the International Peace Research Association IPRA in 2018 in Ahmedabad in India Contributions from two pioneers of global peace research a foreword by Johan Galtung from Norway and a preface by Betty Reardon from the United States Innovative case studies by peace researchers on decolonising conflicts security peace gender environment and development in the Anthropocene the new epoch of earth and human history New theoretical perspectives by senior and junior scholars from Europe and Latin America on peace ecology transformative peace peaceful societies and Gandhi s non violence policy Case studies on climate change SDGs and peace in India conflicts in Kenya Nigeria South Sudan Turkey Brazil and Mexico Roma in Hungary the refugee crisis in Bangladesh peace action in

Petschow, 2013-03-09 Starting from this dematerialization hypothesis for the first time comparative case studies analyse in detail the driving forces of industrial restructuring of different industries and countries in Europe where such a decline has been observed at least temporarily The Monetary Imagination of Edgar Allan Poe Heinz Tschachler, 2013-06-05 In this first of its kind treatment Heinz Tschachler offers an account of Edgar Allan Poe's relation to the world of banking and money in antebellum America He contends that Poe gave the full force of his censure to the acrimonious debates about America's money Andrew Jackson's bank war the panic of 1837 and the ensuing depression and the nation's inability to furnish a sound and uniform currency Poe's attitude is overt in his early satires more subdued in The Gold Bug and almost an undercurrent in writings that enter into and historicize the discovery of gold in California In Poe's writings much is concealed though his art also reveals while it conceals in this instance a deep felt desire for an authority that would guarantee a measure of permanence and continuity to the nation's currency That kind of currency was finally furnished by Abraham Lincoln both were born in 1809 Poe died in 1849 at one time a dedicated reader of Poe's tales and sketches Wielding his power of regulation Lincoln came to save the Union not just militarily but also economically Under him the United States government finally provided the kind of sound and uniform currency that Poe in his writings could only name and rehearse

Current Research in Britain, 1995 Media, Identity, and Struggle in Twenty-First-Century China Rachel Murphy, Vanessa L. Fong, 2013-09-13 How are different groups of people such as sex workers migrant workers rural cadres and homosexuals represented in China's media How accurately do representations created by the media reflect the lived experiences of Chinese people Do Chinese people accept the representations and messages disseminated by the media Can they use the media to portray their own interests How are media practices in China changing Have new technologies and increased access to international media opened up new spaces for struggle in China The essays in this volume address these questions by using a combination of ethnography and textual analysis and by exploring representation in and usage of a range of media including instant messaging the internet television films magazines and newspapers The essays highlight highlights the richness diversity and sometimes contradictory tendencies of the meanings and consequences of media representations in China The volume cautions against approaches that take the representations created by the media in China at face value and against oversimplified assumptions about the motivations and agency of players in the complex struggles that occur between the media the Chinese state and Chinese citizens

Aspects of Contemporary Book Design Richard Hendel, 2013-06-15 In this manifestly practical book Richard Hendel has invited book and journal designers he admires to describe how they approach and practice the craft of book design Designers with interesting and varied careers in the field who work with contemporary technology in today's publishing environment describe their methods of managing the challenges presented by specific types of books presented side by side with numerous images from those books Not an instruction manual but a unique on the job title page to index guide to the ways that professional British and American designers think about design Aspects of Contemporary Book Design continues the conversation that began with Hendel's 1998 classic On Book Design Contributing designers who focus on solving problems posed by nonfiction fiction cookbooks plays poetry illustrated books and journals include Cherie Westmoreland Amy Ruth Buchanan Mindy Basinger Hill Nola Burger Ron Costley Kristina Kachele Barbara Wiedemann and Sue Hall as well as a host of other designers typesetters editors and even an author Abbey Gaterud attempts to define the conundrum that the e book presents to designers Kent Lew describes the evolution of his Whitman typeface family Charles Ellertson reflects upon the vital relationship between the typesetter and the designer and Sean Magee writes about the uneasy alliance between designers and editors In an extended essay that is as frank and funny as it is illuminating Andrew Barker takes the reader deep into the morass excavating the fine finer and finest details of working through a series design At the heart of this copiously illustrated book is the enduring need for design that clarifies the way for the reader whether on the printed page or on the computer screen Blending his roles as designer author interviewer and editor Hendel reaches across both sides of the drafting table both real and virtual to create a book that will appeal to aspiring and seasoned book designers as well as writers editors and readers who want to know more about the visual presentation of the written word

The Global Development Crisis Benjamin Selwyn, 2014-02-07 The central paradox of the contemporary world is the simultaneous presence of wealth on an unprecedented scale and mass poverty Liberal theory explains the relationship between capitalism and poverty as one based around the dichotomy of inclusion into capitalism vs exclusion from capitalism Within this discourse the global capitalist system is portrayed as a sphere of economic dynamism and as a source of developmental opportunities for less developed countries and their populations Development policy should therefore seek to integrate the poor into the global capitalist system The Global Development Crisis challenges this way of thinking Through an interrogation of some of the most important political economists of the last two centuries Friedrich List Karl Marx Leon Trotsky Joseph Schumpeter Alexander Gerschenkron Karl Polanyi and Amarta Sen Selwyn argues that class relations are the central cause of poverty and inequality within and between countries In contrast to much development thinking which portrays the poor as reliant upon benign assistance this book advocates the concept of labour centred development Here the poor are the global labouring classes and their own collective actions and struggles constitute the basis of an alternative form of non elitist bottom up human development
