Platitudes And The New Black Aesthetic:

Platitudes Trey Ellis, 2003-10-02 A playful irreverent look at the African American literary community Slavery and the Post-Black Imagination Bertram D. Ashe, Ilka Saal, 2020-01-06 Honorable Mention for the 2022 Modern Language Association Prize for an Edited Collection Interrogates how artists have created new ways to imagine the past of American slavery From Kara Walker's hellscape antebellum silhouettes to Paul Beatty's bizarre twist on slavery in The Sellout and from Colson Whitehead's literal Underground Railroad to Jordan Peele's body snatching Get Out this volume offers commentary on contemporary artistic works that present like musical deep cuts some challenging alternate takes on American slavery These artists deliberately confront and negotiate the psychic and representational legacies of slavery to imagine possibilities and change The essays in this volume explore the conceptions of freedom and blackness that undergird these narratives critically examining how artists growing up in the post Civil Rights era have nuanced slavery in a way that is distinctly different from the first wave of neo slave narratives that emerged from the Civil Rights and Black Power Movements Slavery and the Post Black Imagination positions post blackness as a productive category of analysis that brings into sharp focus recent developments in black cultural productions across various media These ten essays investigate how millennial black cultural productions trouble long held notions of blackness by challenging limiting scripts They interrogate political as well as formal interventions into established discourses to demonstrate how explorations of black identities frequently go hand in hand with the purposeful refiguring of slavery's prevailing tropes narratives and images A V Ethel Willis White Book Black Male Fiction and the Legacy of Caliban James W. Coleman, 2021-12-14 With The Tempest's Caliban Shakespeare created an archetype in the modern era depicting black men as slaves and savages who threaten civilization As contemporary black male fiction writers have tried to free their subjects and themselves from this legacy to tell a story of liberation they often unconsciously retell the story making their heroes into modern day Calibans Coleman analyzes the modern and postmodern novels of John Edgar Wideman Clarence Major Charles Johnson William Melvin Kelley Trey Ellis David Bradley and Wesley Brown He traces the Caliban legacy to early literary influences primarily Ralph Ellison and then deftly demonstrates its contemporary manifestations This engaging study challenges those who argue for the liberating possibilities of the postmodern narrative as Coleman reveals the pervasiveness and influence of Calibanic discourse At the heart of James Coleman's study is the perceived history of the black male in Western culture and the traditional racist stereotypes indigenous to the language Calibanic discourse Coleman argues so deeply and subconsciously influences the texts of black male writers that they are unable to cast off the oppression inherent in this discourse Coleman wants to change the perception of black male writers struggle with oppression by showing that it is their special struggle with language Black Male Fiction and the Legacy of Caliban is the first book to analyze a substantial body of black male fiction from a central perspective African American Literature in Transition, 1980-1990: Volume 15 D. Quentin Miller, Rich

Blint,2023-02-09 African American Literature in Transition 1980 1990 tracks Black expressive culture in the 1980s as novelists poets dramatists filmmakers and performers grappled with the contradictory legacies of the civil rights era and the start of culture wars and policy machinations that would come to characterize the 1990s The volume is necessarily interdisciplinary and critically promiscuous in its methodologies and objects of study as it reconsiders conventional temporal spatial and moral understandings of how African American letters emerged immediately after the movement James Baldwin describes as the latest slave rebellion As such the question of the state of America s democratic project as refracted through the literature of the shaping presence of African Americans is one of the guiding concerns of this volume preoccupied with a moment in American literary history still burdened by the legacies of the 1960s while imagining the contours of an African Americanist future in the new millennium African American Satire Darryl Dickson-Carr,2001 Satire s real purpose as a literary genre is to criticize through humor irony caricature and parody and ultimately to defy the status quo In African American Satire Darryl Dickson Carr provides the first book length study of African American satire and the vital role it has played In the process he investigates African American literature American literature and the history of satire Book Jacket

Writing the Black Revolutionary Diva Kimberly Nichele Brown,2010-09-09 Kimberly Nichele Brown examines how African American women since the 1970s have found ways to move beyond the double consciousness of the colonized text to develop a healthy subjectivity that attempts to disassociate black subjectivity from its connection to white culture Brown traces the emergence of this new consciousness from its roots in the Black Aesthetic Movement through important milestones such as the anthology The Black Woman and Essence magazine to the writings of Angela Davis Toni Cade Bambara and Jayne Cortez

The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr,1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation s creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith

Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature Intersecting Aesthetics

Charlene Regester, Cynthia Baron, Ellen C. Scott, Terri Simone Francis, Robin G. Vander, 2023-11-27 Contributions by Cynthia Baron Elizabeth Binggeli Kimberly Nichele Brown Priscilla Layne Eric Pierson Charlene Regester Ellen C. Scott Tanya L. Shields and Judith E. Smith Intersecting Aesthetics: Literary Adaptations and Cinematic Representations of Blackness illuminates cultural and material trends that shaped Black film adaptations during the twentieth century Contributors to this collection reveal how Black literary and filmic texts are sites of negotiation between dominant and resistant perspectives Their work ultimately explores the effects racial perspectives have on film adaptations and how race inflected cultural norms have influenced studio and independent film depictions Several chapters analyze how self censorship and industry censorship affect Black writing and the adaptations of Black stories in early to mid twentieth century America Using archival material contributors demonstrate the ways commercial obstacles have led Black writers and white dominated studios to mask Black experiences Other chapters document instances in which Black writers and directors navigate cultural norms and material

realities to realize their visions in literary works independent films and studio productions Through uncovering patterns in Black film adaptations Intersecting Aesthetics reveals themes aesthetic strategies and cultural dynamics that rightfully belong to accounts of film adaptation The volume considers travelogue and autobiography sources along with the fiction of Black authors H G de Lisser Richard Wright Ann Petry Frank Yerby and Walter Mosley Contributors examine independent films The Love Wanga 1936 and The Devil s Daughter 1939 Melvin Van Peebles s first feature The Story of a Three Day Pass 1967 and the Senegalese film Karmen Ge 2001 They also explore studio era films In This Our Life 1942 The Foxes of Harrow 1947 Lydia Bailey 1952 The Golden Hawk 1952 and The Saracen Blade 1954 and post studio films The Learning Tree 1969 Shaft 1971 Lady Sings the Blues 1972 and Devil in a Blue Dress 1995 Racial Asymmetries Stephen Hong Sohn,2014-01-17 Challenging the tidy links among authorial position narrative perspective and fictional content Stephen Hong Sohn argues that Asian American authors have never been limited to writing about Asian American characters or contexts Racial Asymmetries specifically examines the importance of first person narration in Asian American fiction published in the postrace era focusing on those cultural productions in which the author s ethnoracial makeup does not directly overlap with that of the storytelling perspective Through rigorous analysis of novels and short fiction such as Sesshu Foster s Atomik Aztex Sabina Murray s A Carnivore s Inquiry and Sigrid Nunez s The Last of Her Kind Sohn reveals how the construction of narrative perspective allows the Asian American writer a flexible aesthetic canvas upon which to engage issues of oppression and inequity power and subjectivity and the complicated construction of racial identity Speaking to concerns running through postcolonial studies and American literature at large Racial Asymmetries employs an interdisciplinary approach to reveal the unbounded nature of fictional worlds Furiously Funny Terrence T. Tucker,2020-02-17 A combustible mix of fury and radicalism pathos and pain wit and love Terrence Tucker calls it comic rage and he shows how it has been used by African American artists to aggressively critique America s racial divide

Deconstructing Will Smith Willie Tolliver,2022-01-20 Acclaimed actor and rap artist Will Smith has achieved a level of Hollywood fame rarely attained by a Black celebrity Early in his career Smith aspired to be the world s most famous movie star and being named the world s top film attraction in 2008 fulfilled his goal While his rise to a place of worldwide prominence and cultural relevance has made him iconic his accomplishments have not received the full and thorough acknowledgement and analysis they merit This is the first full length critical look at the significance of Will Smith s achievements over a more than 30 year career Many of his films have broken cultural norms by depicting Black men in groundbreaking social settings like the role of the world saving hero in his most popular films In addition to analyzing Smith s filmography this work contextualizes other popular and common portrayals of Black men in media and society Finally this book examines Smith s work in his middle age ruminating on his ability to adapt to the realities of a new Hollywood Jeff Buckley's Grace Daphne A. Brooks,2005-04-28 The power and influence of Grace increases with each passing year Here

Daphne Brooks traces Jeff Buckley's fascinating musical development through the earliest stages of his career up to the release of the album With the Wind. With access to rare archival material, Brooks illustrates Buckley's passion for life and hunger for musical knowledge and shows just why he was such a crucial figure in the American music scene of the 1990s. EXCERPT Jeff Buckley was piecing together a contemporary popular music history for himself that was steeped in the magic of singing. He was busy hearing how Dylan channeled Billie Holiday in Blonde on Blonde and how Robert Plant was doing his best to sound like Janis Joplin on early Led Zeppelin recordings. He was thinking about doo wop and opera and Elton John and working at developing a way to harness the power of the voice. In the process, he was redefining punk and grunge attitude itself by rejecting the ambivalent sexual undercurrents of those movements as well as Led Zeppelin's canonical cock rock kingdom that he'd grown up adoring. He was forging a one-man revolution set to the rhythms of New York City and beyond. And he was on the brink of recording his elegant battle in song for the world to hear. Contemporary African American Literature Lorraine

King, Shirley Moody-Turner, 2021-12-22 Essays exploring contemporary black fiction and examining important issues in current African American literary studies. In this volume, Lorraine King and Shirley Moody Turner have compiled a collection of essays that offer access to some of the most innovative contemporary black fiction while addressing important issues in current African American literary studies. Distinguished scholars Houston Baker, Trudier Harris, Darryl Dickson Carr, and Maryemma Graham join writers and younger scholars to explore the work of Toni Morrison, Edward P. Jones, Trey Ellis, Paul Beatty, Mat Johnson, Kyle Baker, Danzy Senna, Nikki Turner, and many others. The collection is bracketed by a foreword by novelist and graphic artist Mat Johnson, one of the most exciting and innovative contemporary African American writers, and an afterword by Alice Randall, author of the controversial parody The Wind Done Gone. Together, King and Moody Turner make the case that diversity, innovation, and canon expansion are essential to maintaining the vitality of African American literary studies. A compelling collection of essays on the ongoing relevance of African American literature to our collective understanding of American history, society, and culture. Featuring a wide array of writers from all corners of the literary academy, the book will have national appeal and offer strategies for teaching African American literature in colleges and universities across the country. Gene Jarrett, Boston University. This book describes a fruitful tension that brings scholars of major reputation together with newly emerging critics to explore the full range of literary activities that have flourished in the post-Civil Rights era. Notable are such popular influences as hip-hop music and Oprah Winfrey's Book Club. American Literary Scholarship 2013 Bearing Witness to African American Literature Bernard W. Bell, 2012-05-15 An interdisciplinary code-switching critical collection by revisionist African American scholar and activist Bernard W. Bell. Bearing Witness to African American Literature: Validating and Valorizing Its Authority, Authenticity, and Agency collects twenty-three of Bernard W. Bell's lectures and essays that were first presented between 1968 and 2008. From his role in the culture wars as a graduate student activist in the Black Studies Movement to his work in the transcultural Globalization

Movement as an international scholar and Fulbright cultural ambassador in Spain Portugal and China Bell's long and inspiring journey traces the modern institutional origins and the contemporary challengers of African American literary studies This volume is made up of five sections including chapters on W E B DuBois's theory and trope of double consciousness an original theory of residually oral forms for reading the African American novel an argument for an African Americentric vernacular and literary tradition and a deconstruction of the myths of the American melting pot and literary mainstream Bell considers texts by contemporary writers like Toni Morrison Alice Walker William Styron James Baldwin and Jean Toomer as well as works by Mark Twain Frederick Douglas and William Faulkner In a style that ranges from lyricism to the classic jeremiad Bell emphasizes that his work bears the imprint of many major influences including his mentor poet and scholar Sterling A Brown and W E B DuBois Taken together the chapters demonstrate Bell's central place as a revisionist African American literary and cultural theorist historian and critic Bearing Witness to African American Literature will be an invaluable introduction to major issues in the African American literary tradition for scholars of American African American and cultural studies

Denzel Washington Cynthia Baron, 2017-10-10 In this illuminating insight into Denzel Washington's multifaceted image and remarkable career Cynthia Baron traces his star persona and impact on mainstream society from his time as a skilled actor in theatre and television in the 1980s to his leading man roles in landmark films of the 1990s to his place in Hollywood's elite in the 2000s

Passing Interest Julie Cary Nerad, 2014-07-01 Explores how the trope of racial passing continues to serve as a touchstone for gauging public beliefs and anxieties about race in this multiracial era The first volume to focus on the trope of racial passing in novels memoirs television and films published or produced between 1990 and 2010 Passing Interest takes the scholarly conversation on passing into the twenty first century With contributors working in the fields of African American studies American studies cultural studies film studies literature and media studies this book offers a rich interdisciplinary survey of critical approaches to a broad range of contemporary passing texts Contributors frame recent passing texts with a wide array of cultural discourses including immigration law the Post Soul Aesthetic contemporary political satire affirmative action the paradoxes of colorblindness and the rhetoric of post racialism Many explore whether one drop of blood still governs our sense of racial identity or to what extent contemporary American culture allows for the racially indeterminate individual Some essays open the scholarly conversation to focus on ethnic passers individuals who complicate the traditional black white binary while others explore the slippage between traditional racial passing and related forms of racial performance including blackface minstrelsy and racial masquerade

The Mindful Classroom

Tru Leverette, 2022-02-10 The Mindful Classroom Constructive Conversations on Race Identity and Justice helps teachers and discussion facilitators practice and teach mindfulness and movement techniques that can deeply enhance conversations about race identity and social justice furthering social justice efforts at their most basic stage person to person from the face to face or online classroom to the community at large Mindfulness and movement practices can help us prepare for and engage in difficult conversations and the more conscious we become of our emotional mental and physical landscape the more we are able to engage proactively rather than reactively consciously rather than automatically We become able to act or not act rather than react in situations with others The topics of race and social justice are timely and they are triggers Productive engagement with these topics demands we remain mindful of how we may be triggered and how we may be triggering others it demands we pay attention to ourselves at a fundamental level and it demands that we grant such attention to others
