Saudi Arabia and Ethiopia Hagai Erlikh, 2007 What is the significance of Islam's growing strength in Ethiopia And what is the impetus for the Saudi financing of hundreds of new mosques and schools in the country the establishment of welfare organizations and the spread of the Arabic language Hagai Erlich explores the interplay of religion and international politics as it has shaped the development of modern Ethiopia and Saudi Arabia Tracing Saudi Ethiopian relations from the 1930s to the present Erlich highlights the nexus of concrete politics and the conceptual messages of religion His fresh approach encompasses discussions of the options and dilemmas facing Ethiopians both Christians and Muslims across multiple decades the Saudis nuanced conceptualization of their Islamic self in contrast to Christian and Islamic others and the present confrontation between Ethiopia's apolitical Islam and Wahhabi fundamentalism It also provides new perspectives on both the current dilemmas of the Wahhabi kingdom and the global implications of the evolving Saudi Ethiopian relationship Saudi Arabia and Ethiopia Hagai Erlikh, 2014-05-14 Law, Religion and Human Flourishing in Africa M. Christian Green, 2019-05-15 A shared interest of law and religion is the advancement of human flourishing yet there is no common understanding of what it means for humans to flourish and the means by which to attain a flourishing life The concept of human flourishing is especially important for Africa where community and national development compete with forces of conflict and scarce resources In the broadest sense the concept of human flourishing focuses our attention on having a comprehensively good or worthwhile life but various religious and legal traditions suggest different norms for measuring the quality of life and designing the institutional structures that could best facilitate and preserve it The African Christian and Islam John Azumah, Lamin Sanneh, 2013-06-14 During the summer of 2010 Ghana played host to the first ever conference held within Africa to focus solely on the relationship of the African Christian and Islam The event was led by John Azumah in partnership with the Center of Early African Theology The conference chaired by Archbishop John Olorunfemi Onaiyekan of Abuja welcomed over 50 participants from across 27 African countries and several denominations This book is a collection of the papers presented by 22 of the delegates forming a historical survey and thematic assessment of the African Christian and Islam In addition key information on the introduction spread and engagement of Islam and Christianity within 9 African countries is presented The book closes with Biblical reflections that opened each day of the conference providing useful examples of Christians reading the Bible in reference to Islam The World Almanac of Islamism 2019 American

Foreign Policy Council, 2019-04-30 Now in its fourth edition The World Almanac of Islamism is the first comprehensive reference work to detail the current activities of radical Islamist movements worldwide The contributions written by subject expert provide up to date assessments on the contemporary Islamist threat in all countries and regions where it exists Each country study will include valuable metrics for gauging the advance or decline of Islamism In places where Islamists are not in power these include year on year comparisons of the number of terrorist attacks that have taken place the level of popular support being received by radical religious organizations and political parties and applicable government responses to these trends if any In places where they are in power metrics encompass relevant changes to domestic human rights practices and social conditions foreign policy rhetoric and action and the overall stability of the state      Subjects of Empires, Citizens of States Samson A. Bezabeh,2016 Subjects of Empires Citizens of States draws on rich ethnographic and historical research to examine the interaction of the Yemeni diaspora with states and empires in Djibouti and Ethiopia from the early twentieth century Elegantly combining theoretical readings with extensive empirical findings this study documents a largely forgotten period in the history of Yemeni migration as well as contributing to the wider debates on class citizenship and ethnicity in relation to diaspora groups It will appeal to specialists in Middle East studies and to those who study the Indian Ocean and Horn of Africa regions as well as to migration and diaspora studies scholars nongovernmental organizations and policy makers      The Global Ethiopian Diaspora Shimelis Bonsa Gulema,Hewan Girma,Mulugeta F. Dinbabo,2024 A comprehensive historical geographic and thematic analysis of the multidimensional and dynamic migration experience of Ethiopians within and beyond Africa Ethiopia is one of the largest African sources of transnational migrants with an estimated two to three million Ethiopians living outside of the home country This edited collection provides a critical examination of the temporal spatial and thematic dimensions of Ethiopian migration mapping out its scale scope and destinations The thirteen essays here plus an introduction and conclusion by the volume s editors offer a discussion of the state of knowledge and current debates on the diaspora and suggest alternative frameworks for interrogating and understanding the Ethiopian migration and diasporic experiences Key time periods and literatures are identified to study Ethiopian transnational migration moving from a survey of patterns in pre twentieth century Ethiopia and on to changing trajectories in the imperial period and under succeeding postrevolutionary regimes Geographically the contour of the Ethiopian diaspora is outlined identifying key destinations and patterns of return In particular the volume seeks to correct the traditional tendency to conflate the Ethiopian diaspora with North America and Europe by including areas that have long been marginalized such as inter Africa Asia and the Middle East The objective is not to construct a simple cartography of migration but a critical analysis of national and global issues policies trends and processes that shape the roots and routes of the migration dynamic Thematically this book aims to challenge the existing boundaries of Ethiopian migration and diaspora studies and raise important concerns about representation ghettoization and perpetuation of inequalities Edited by Shimelis Bonsa Gulema Hewan Girma and Mulugeta F Dinbabo Contributors Alpha Abebe Amsale Alemu Tekalign Ayalew Kassaye Berhanu MacDonald Elizabeth Chacko Marina de Regt Mulugeta F Dinbabo Peter H Gebre Hewan Girma Mary Goitom Shimelis Bonsa Gulema Tesfaye Semela Nassise Solomon and Fitsum R Tedla      Immigrants in American History Elliott Robert Barkan,2013-01-17 This encyclopedia is a unique collection of entries covering the arrival adaptation and integration of immigrants into American culture from the 1500s to 2010 Few topics inspire such debate among American citizens as the issue of immigration in the United States Yet it is the steady influx of foreigners into America over 400 years that has shaped the social character of the United States and has favorably positioned this country for globalization Immigrants in American History Arrival Adaptation and Integration is a chronological study of the migration of various ethnic groups to the United States from 1500 to the present day This multivolume collection explores dozens of immigrant populations in America and delves into major topical issues affecting different groups across time periods For example the first author of the collection profiles African Americans as an example of the effects of involuntary migrations A cross disciplinary approach derived from the contributions of leading scholars in the fields of history sociology cultural development economics political science law and cultural adaptation introduces a comparative analysis of customs beliefs and character among groups and provides insight into the impact of newcomers on American society and culture      The Horn of Africa since the 1960s Aleksí Ylönen, Jan Záhorký, 2017-02-17 The Horn of Africa has long been one of the most dynamic and politically turbulent sub regions on the African continent Host to great ancient civilizations diverse peoples and expansive states the region has experienced massive social economic and political transformations which have given rise to military coups revolutions and intractable ethnic socio economic and religious conflicts This comprehensive volume brings together a team of expert scholars who analyze international regional national and local affairs in the Horn of Africa The chapters demonstrate the intertwined nature of the actors and forces shaping political realities The case studies focusing on Ethiopia Eritrea Somalia Somaliland Sudan and South Sudan eloquently illustrate the complex dynamics connecting the spectrum of political issues in the region The Horn of Africa since the 1960s will be of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Africa and political science      Political Handbook of the World 2020-2021 Tom Lansford, 2021-05-31 The Political Handbook of the World by Tom Lansford provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2020 2021 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system The Political Handbook of the World 2020 2021 also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies And this update will aim to include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years      The Emergence of Multiple-Text Manuscripts Alessandro Bausi, Michael Friedrich, Marilena Maniaci, 2019-12-02 The universal practice of selecting and excerpting summarizing and canonizing arranging and organizing texts and visual signs either in carefully dedicated types of manuscripts or not is common to all manuscript cultures Determined by intellectual or practical needs this process is never neutral in itself The resulting proximity and juxtaposition of previously distant contents challenge previous knowledge and trigger further developments With a vast selection of highly representative case studies from India Islamic Asia and Spain to Ethiopian cultures from Ancient Christian to Coptic and Medieval European domains this volume deals with manuscripts planned or growing and resulting in time to comprise more than one Whatever their contents the natural world and related recipes astronomical tables or personal notes documentary religious and even highly revered holy texts codicological and textual features of these manuscripts reveal how similar needs received different answers in varying contexts and times
