Queer Style Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2024-05-16 First published in 2013 Queer Style was ahead of its time It was the first book to address the cultural political and material histories of clothes as signs and markers of gender and sexual identity and remains key reading for scholars and students across fashion studies and the humanities more broadly Now 10 years later the authors have revisited their classic work and updated it to examine the function of subcultural dress within queer communities and the mannerisms and messages that are used as signifiers of identity Periagoge - Theory of Singularity and Philosophy as an Exercise of Transformation Guido Cusinato, 2023-11-07 This book returns to the question at the center of our existence a question that the narcissistic culture in which we are immersed systematically tends to remove Why The underlying thesis is that the answer must not be sought in success or social recognition but in a fragment of truth hidden somewhere inside each of us which reveals itself only if we detach ourselves from our ego and its certainties It is not therefore a matter of finding yet another philosophical theory of the meaning of existence but rather of shedding light on the conditions under which such meaning can emerge The author shows us that the ultimate source of our existential orientation lies in the affective sphere and that the current crisis of orientation is derived from the atrophy of the process of affective maturation on a large scale and from a lack of knowledge and experience about which techniques are best to reactivate it We are like glowworms that had once unlearned how to illuminate and have since begun to hover around the magic lantern of the ascetic ideal already criticized by Nietzsche and then around neon advertising signs We are glowworms that have forgotten that we have within our own affective structure a precious source of orientation The basic thesis is that this source of orientation can be reactivated through the care of desire and practices of emotional sharing Catalog of Copyright Entries. New Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1945 Includes Part 1 Books Group 1 Nos 1 12 1944 Horizon Chasers Gerry Max, 2007-03-07 Richard Halliburton was the quintessential world traveler of the early 20th century In 1930 his celebrity equaled that of Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart Halliburton called himself a horizon chaser and recommended that one should see the world before committing to a routine Not only did he live up to his ideal but he was eager to write about his adventures A prolific partnership with gifted editor and ghost writer Paul Mooney produced excellent work and theirs became a close personal relationship Sadly Halliburton and Mooney disappeared at sea on March 24 1939 along with the entire crew of Halliburton's Chinese junk Sea Dragon as they attempted to cross the Pacific from Hong Kong to the San Francisco World's Fair This biography records the life and adventures of Halliburton and Mooney focusing as no other Halliburton biography has on the productive literary collaboration between the two Drawing on the recollections of people who knew them both the work discusses their backgrounds the early years of their acquaintance and their possible romantic relationship Finally their fateful journey to Hong Kong and the ill advised voyage of the Sea Dragon is described in detail A good deal of first hand evidence is provided by William Alexander Paul Mooney's best friend and

designer of Halliburton's Laguna Beach house Appendices contain seven poems by Mooney and facsimile letters including one of praise written by Richard Halliburton to William Alexander Never before published photographs are also included

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Poetic Memory Uta Gosmann, 2012 How do poems remember What kinds of memory do poems register that factual chronological accounts of the past are oblivious to What is the self created by such practices of memory To answer these questions Uta Gosmann introduces a general theory of poetic memory a manner of thinking that eschews simple minded notions of linearity and accuracy in order to uncover the human subject's intricate relationship to a past that it cannot fully know Gosmann explores poetic memory in the work of Sylvia Plath Susan Howe Ellen Hinsey and Louise Glück four American poets writing in a wide range of styles and discussed here for the first time together Drawing on psychoanalysis memory studies and thinkers from Nietzsche and Benjamin to Halbwachs and Kristeva Gosmann uses these demanding poets to articulate an alternative non empirical model of the self in poetry

Researching Social Change Julie McLeod, Rachel Thomson, 2009-03-26 Questions about change in social and personal life are a feature of many accounts of the contemporary world While theories of social change abound discussions about how to research it are much less common This book provides a timely guide to qualitative methodologies that investigate processes of personal generational and historical change The authors showcase a range of methods that explore temporality and the dynamic relations between past present and future Through case studies they review six methodological traditions memory work oral life history qualitative longitudinal research ethnography intergenerational and follow up studies It illustrates how these research approaches are translated into research projects and considers the practical as well as the theoretical and ethical challenges they pose Research methods are also the product of times and places and this book keeps to the fore the cultural and historical context in which these methods developed the theoretical traditions on which they draw and the empirical questions they address Researching Social Change is an invaluable resource for researchers and graduate students across the social sciences who are interested in understanding and researching social change
