Bureau of Education,Philippines. Department of Education,1926 Oregon Teachers Monthly ,1919 Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1924 Learning to Trust Marilyn Watson,2018-07-31 Learning to Trust describes a constructivist approach to classroom management and discipline that was developed by the Child Development Project a multiyear research and development project that applied attachment theory care and self determination theories to the elementary school classroom In this book Marilyn Watson provides an overview of the research on attachment theory and a detailed description of its implications for teaching and classroom management while chronicling one teacher Laura Ecken and her second third grade class in a high poverty school across two years as she implements the Child Development Project and manages the class guided by attachment theory Watson documents in detail Laura s day by day and week by week efforts to build caring trusting relationships with and among her students and describes the many steps Laura takes to guide the class into becoming a caring learning community

while also meeting her students individual needs for autonomy and competence Of course not all goes well in this very real classroom and the ways Laura manages the pressures of competition and students many misbehaviors ordinary and serious are clearly and sometimes humorously described Such teaching is not easy and is counter to more controlling management approaches common in many schools The book concludes with a chapter on how teachers might find support in their current schools for this more collaborative approach to classroom management as well as a chapter that includes reflections from a number of the students seven years after leaving the class
