in this thoroughly updated second edition of Fair Isn't Always Equal: Assessment and Grading in the Differentiated Classroom, Wormeli reflects on current grading and assessment practices and how they can exist with high stakes accountable classrooms. Important and sometimes controversial issues are tackled constructively in this book, incorporating modern pedagogy and addressing the challenges of teaching diverse groups of students across all learning levels. Middle and high school educators will easily recognize gray areas of grading and how important it is to have a shared school vision. In this second edition, new sections address sports eligibility, honor roll, descriptive feedback techniques, and gifted/talented students. Previous chapters on test questions, redos, retakes, grading scales, and grading effort and behavior have been revised extensively. This important book clearly explains the principles behind best grading practices so that you're ready for all grading questions or scenarios that you may encounter in your classrooms and schools.

Educating Young Children from Preschool Through Primary Grades Laverne Warner, Judith Sower, 2005

Catering to the first-time teacher, the authors provide day-to-day challenges of what it means to teach young children in the classroom while fostering a mentoring environment for pre-service teachers entering the field. Chapter 4 addresses children with special needs and commonly used modifications for each of the disabilities. A unique chapter on teaching fourth graders, chapter 10, has been included that may be covered or skipped depending upon state requirements. Lesson planning is emphasized throughout, and sample lesson plans and mini-lessons have been included for every grade level and subject area.
