

Speech Graduation – Mary Patetsos

Thank you Chancellor, Professors, Academic Staff, graduands, families and friends

For a mind to thrive it must always be open to new ideas and it must enjoy the adventures of learning. Today's ceremony is in recognition of your learning experience to date and that you have practiced an open mind. It is also an inflection point capturing what you have gained thus far and a recognition that learning will, in the future take on a different guise for each one of you.

I recall sitting in an audience, not dissimilar to this, 20 years ago. A room filled with relief, anticipation and significant anxiety. A room overflowing with a mixture of emotions. An experience which is always useful.

Today you, indeed all of us, face a National and indeed a Global economy which may not present adequate opportunities. Indeed a globalised world may indeed
