Save The Children Report:

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child in Wales Jane Williams, 2013-02-15 This edited collection tells the story behind a ground breaking Welsh law which reinforces the human rights of children and young people in Welsh devolved government examines the impact of this law in selected policy areas and shows why the Welsh approach is attracting worldwide interest

The War Report Stuart Casey-Maslen, 2013-12 This is the first annual report on armed conflicts around the world providing detailed study of each conflict which occurred in 2012 describing its classification the applicable norms key actors methods of warfare and the number of casualties It also analyses the key legal issues that arose in the context of these armed conflicts

Reporting Humanitarian Disasters in a Social Media Age Glenda Cooper, 2018-10-26 From the tsunami to Hurricane Sandy the Nepal earthquake to Syrian refugees defining images and accounts of humanitarian crises are now often created not by journalists but by ordinary citizens using Twitter Facebook YouTube Instagram and Snapchat But how has the use of this content and the way it is spread by social media altered the rituals around disaster reporting the close if not symbiotic relationship between journalists and aid agencies and the kind of crises that are covered Drawing on more than 100 in depth interviews with journalists and aid agency press officers participant observations at the Guardian BBC and Save the Children UK as well as the ordinary people who created the words and pictures that framed these disasters this book reveals how humanitarian disasters are covered in the 21st century and the potential consequences for those who posted a tweet a video or photo without ever realising how far it would go

By the Sweat and Toil of Children: Consumer labels and child labor , 1994 Children's Rights in Africa Julia Sloth-Nielsen, 2016-05-23 This collection is anchored in an African conception of children s rights and the law and reflects contemporary discourses taking place in the region of the children s rights sphere The majority of contributors are African and adopt an individual approach to their topic which reflects their first hand experience The book focuses on child rights issues which have particular resonance on the continent and the chapters span themes which are both broad and narrow containing subject matter which is both theoretical and illuminated by practice The book profiles recent developments and experiences in furthering children s legal rights in the African context and distils from these future trends the specific role that the law can play in the African children s rights environment

Making Sadza With Deaf Zimbabwean Women Kirk VanGilder, 2012-09-12 Missiological calls for self theologizing among faith communities present the field of practical theology with a challenge to develop methodological approaches that address the complexities of cross cultural practical theological research Although a variety of approaches can be considered critical correlative practical theology existing methods are often built on assumptions that limit their use in subaltern contexts Kirk VanGilder addresses these concerns by analyzing existing theological methodologies with sustained attention to a community of Deaf Zimbabwean women struggling to develop their own agency in relation to child rearing practices He explores a variety of theological approaches from practical theology mission oriented theologians theology among Deaf communities and African women s theology in relationship to the challenges presented by subaltern communities such as Deaf Zimbabwean women Rather than frame a comprehensive methodology VanGilder proposes attitudes and guideposts to reorient practical theological researchers who wish to engender self theologizing agency in subaltern communities

Child Sponsorship B. Watson,M. Clarke,2014-08-19 This book reviews the remarkable growth diversity and challenges of child sponsorship It features the latest progress in child sponsorship practice and necessary tensions experienced by some organisations as they seek to maximise impact
