Sc High School Football Rules:

High School Football in South Carolina John Boyanoski,2010-08-05 South Carolina has a proud tradition of high school football stretching back to the 1890s making the sport one of the most celebrated in the state Discover how Florence High School sometimes dubbed the Yellow Jackets or the Golden Tornados won the first four state titles a record that has been tied but never broken And learn about the aftermath of a 1922 game between Columbia and Charleston when violent Columbia fans hurled eggs at the Charleston train as the players left for home Through the 1960s the sport withstood the immense pressure of integration until 157 teams ballooned into 193 by the end of the decade John Boyanoski reveals the trophies tears and triumphs of the Palmetto State s time honored football legacy The High School Journal ,1925 Playing for Power Marvin T. Everything they say about football is wrong Football players don't commit suicide at elevated levels die younger than their peers or suffer disproportionately from heart disease In fact professional players live longer healthier lives than American men in general More than that football is America's most popular sport It brings us together It is and has been a rite of passage for millions of American boys But fear over concussions and other injuries could put football on ice School districts are already considering doing away with football as too dangerous Parents who used to see football as character building now worry that it may be mind destroying Even the president has jumped on the pile by fretting that he might prevent a son from playing if he had one But as author Daniel J Flynn reports football is actually safer than skateboarding bicycling or skiing And in a nation facing an obesity crisis a little extra running jumping and tackling could do us all good Detailing incontrovertible fact after incontrovertible fact The War on Football Saving America's Game rescues reality from the hype and in doing so may just ensure that football remains America's game 100 Things South Carolina Fans Should Know

Courts and Congress William J. Quirk, 2011-12-31 It is often said confirmed by survey data that the American people are losing confidence in their government But the problem may be the reverse the government has lost confidence in the people Increasingly the power to make decisions in our democracy has been shifted from Congress to the court system forcing non elected officials to make decisions which affect the lives of Americans In a society which is based on the democratic elections of its officials this is clearly backwards Quirk maintains that what he calls The Happy Convention an informal and unwritten rearrangement of passing the buck of government powers is done to avoid blame and approval ratings becoming lower for a particular person or party For example The Happy Convention assigns the power to declare and make war to the President Congress and the Court play a supporting role Congress when requested gives the President a blank check to use force the Court throws out any challenges to the legality of the war Everyone wins if the war avoids disaster If it turns out badly the President is held accountable His ratings fall reelection is out of the question congressmen say he lied to them his Party is likely to lose the next election In this way Quirk reminds us that The Happy Convention is not what the Founders intended for us For democracy to work properly the American people have to know what options they have Courts and Congress argues the case for reestablishing the balance of powers between the courts the Congress and the Presidency
