Bernard F. Dick

Scenario For The 2014 Comrades Marathon Tour:

No Chains Around My Feet Nomoya M Mahlangu, 2017-11-06 This book closely examines how the enterprise of running mirrors the key facets of life The author draws parallels between running and life so as to enhance the lessons that readers can draw from each of these phenomena Running resembles life and the latter carries a myriad of lessons for the former This book is not about running per se nor is it meant to be an all encompassing self help manual about life though it contains these aspects to a certain degree Such an undertaking would be preposterous in the least You can however draw valuable lessons for personal mastery within organizational societal and familial relationships and other relationship contexts The books purpose is to drive the dual message that invisible chains shackle an unexamined life and that the activity of running competitively or not entails a lot of principles processes guidelines theories and lessons that can apply to everyday life experiences and enhance the human experience Consequently the book is meant for professional and social runners and those who appreciate running from the comfort of their couch remote in hand It explores the seemingly and misleadingly easy exercise of running as a source for profound lessons about the sometimes complex business of living

Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19 the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model

When Running Was Young and So Were We Jack D. CHAPTER VII Upon the expulsion of Hippias the direction of Athenian politics passed into the hands of Cleisthenes son of Megacles the head of the Alem onid He soon found a rival in Isagoras a man of noble extraction whose popularity with the rich and noble preponderated over his own and being in consequence driven to advocate the popular cause and thus recovering the ascendant he introduced several changes tending to make the constitution more democratical Isagoras sought to regain his advantage by foreign aid and at his suggestion Cleomenes one of the kings of Sparta required the expulsion of the Alem onid as an atonement for the sacrilegious murder of Cylon s partisans in which they had been the chief actors Offensive as such an interference appears the religious feelings of Greece gave weight to the requisition which was besides backed by the whole power of Sparta and in obedience to it Cleisthenes and his chief supporters withdrew Not content with this the Spartan king went with a small force to Athens and proceeded to banish seven hundred families as concerned in the sacrilege to change the forms of the constitution and place all power in the hands of Isagoras and his friends But he miscalculated the forbearance of the Athenians Fearful as they were of a rupture with their powerful rival they flew to arms and besieged Cleomenes in the citadel On the third day he and his troops surrendered on condition that they should be allowed to depart and Cleisthenes returning reassumed the direction of affairs His first object was to find some assistance in the war which appeared inevitable and as the Persian empire was now at its height he sent ambassadors to Sardis where the satrap or governor of Lydia resided to request admission to the Persian alliance The satrap inquired who the Athenians were and where they lived and then scornfully answered that if they would give earth and water to King Darius in token of subjection their request should be granted otherwise they must depart The ambassadors complied but on returning to Athens they were strongly censured This was the first public transaction between Greece and Persia As was expected the Lacedaemonians invaded Attica but the Corinthians refused to support them and this attempt to procure the restoration of Hippias failed Thus baffled they summoned a meeting of their allies at which the banished chief was invited to be present but here again their views were frustrated by the agency of the Corinthians Hippias returning to Sigeum went thence to Sardis with the view of persuading the satrap Artaphernes to reduce Athens and replace him in the monarchy under vassalage to the Persian monarch The Athenians on receiving these tidings sent to request Artaphernes not to listen to their banished subjects but they were met by a peremptory command to receive back Hippias as they wished to be safe From this time they considered themselves openly at war with Persia Under these circumstances when an insurrection broke out among the Asiatic Greeks of Ionia and olis the Athenians readily gave their assistance to the revoltors Twenty ships of theirs with five of the Eretrians joined the Ionian fleet the collective force disembarked at Ephesus marched sixty miles into the interior took

Sardis by surprise and burnt it. Returning they were entirely defeated under the walls of Ephesus and the Athenians then withdrew their ships and took no further part in the war. These events took place b c 499. To be continue in this ebook The Star-Spangled Screen Bernard F. Dick, 2014-07-11. The American World War II film depicted a united America a mythic America in which the average guy the girl next door the 4 F patriot and the grieving mother were suddenly transformed into heroes and heroines warriors and goddesses. The Star Spangled Screen examines the historical accuracy or lack thereof of films about the Third Reich the Resistance and major military campaigns. Concerned primarily with the films of the war years it also includes discussions of such postwar movies as Battleground 1949 Attack 1956 The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 and Patton 1970. This revised edition includes a new afterword that covers more recent films such as Sophie's Choice 1982 Biloxi Blues 1986 and Schindler's List 1993. The Star Spangled Screen makes a major contribution to popular culture by recreating an era that for all its tragedy was one of the most creative in the history of American film. A Tremendous Thing Gregory Jusdanis, 2014-12-18. Why did you do all this for me Wilbur asked I don't deserve it I've never done anything for you You have been my friend replied Charlotte. That in itself is a tremendous thing from Charlotte's Web by E B White. Friendship encompasses a wide range of social bonds from playground companionship and wartime camaraderie to modern marriages and Facebook links. For many friendship is more meaningful than familial ties. And yet it is our least codified relationship with no legal standing or bureaucratic definition. In A Tremendous Thing Gregory Jusdanis explores the complex sometimes contradictory nature of friendship reclaiming its importance in both society and the humanities today. Ranging widely in his discussion he looks at the art of friendship and friendship in art finding a compelling link between our need for friends and our engagement with fiction. Both he contends necessitate the possibility of entering invented worlds of reading the minds of others and of learning to live with people. Investigating the ethics aesthetics and politics of friendship Jusdanis draws from the earliest writings to the present from the Epic of Gilgamesh and the Iliad to Charlotte's Web and Brokeback Mountain as well as from philosophy sociology evolutionary biology psychology and political theory. He asks What makes friends stay together Why do we associate friendship with mourning Does friendship contribute to the formation of political communities Can friends desire each other The history of friendship demonstrates that human beings are a mutually supportive species with an innate aptitude to envision and create ties with others. At a time when we are confronted by war economic inequality and climate change Jusdanis suggests that we reclaim friendship to harness our capacity for cooperation and empathy. If Elected ... Arleen Keylin, Eve Nelson, 1976. unlike any other The official Comrades Marathon The Ultimate Human Race begins in 1921 and chronologically describes every race in detail up to 2010 s commemorative 85th event All the legends are here in their full Comrades glory and human frailty Arthur Newton Hardy Ballington Wally Hayward Jackie Mekler Alan Robb Frith van der Merwe Bruce Fordyce and others But there is also deeply affectionate and admiring coverage of the backmarkers the ones often called the real Comrades runners those ordinary people behind the front runners This meticulously researched account will certainly inspire all types of athletes but more than that it will evoke a sense of wonder at what body and mind can achieve in pursuit of extreme challenge The heartbreaking and heart stopping moments are documented alongside the countless successes and triumphs as well as a rich collection of humorous and quirky anecdotes from Comrades lore An updated history of the Comrades Marathon is long overdue and author John Cameron Dow is uniquely qualified to write about this remarkable athletic event he holds a prized green number mark of a ten time Comrades medallist Comrades ,2001
