Pattberg, 2012-10-01 The shengren is the single most important concept in Chinese history. Since the Europeans had not anything like it, but refused to hold the candle to China, instead they withheld the shengren and talked about some lesser versions of Greek philosophers or Christian holy men. The English soon found a slightly better translation; they called the shengren sages. The Germans, however, the descendants of the Holy Roman Empire of German Nation, never had a concept for sages or sagehood. In their effort to christen China, the Germans called the shengren saints. Few people realize how the fate of the shengren was inextricably linked to the German obsession with Holiness. The European imperialists soon engaged in a fierce battle over China's most valuable possessions, its names. A to Zoo, Carolyn W. Lima, John A. Lima, 1989.

The Female Mystic Andrea Janelle Dickens,2009-05-30 The Middle Ages saw a flourishing of mysticism that was astonishing for its richness and distinctiveness The medieval period was unlike any other period of Christianity in producing people who frequently claimed visions of Christ and Mary uttered prophecies gave voice to ecstatic experiences recited poems and songs said to emanate directly from God and changed their ways of life as a result of these special revelations Many recipients of these alleged divine gifts were women Yet the female contribution to western Europe s intellectual and religious development is still not well understood Popular or lay religion has been overshadowed by academic theology which was predominantly the theology of men This timely book rectifies the neglect by examining a number of women whose lives exemplify traditions which were central to medieval theology but whose contributions have tended to be dismissed as merely spiritual by today s scholars In their different ways visionaries like Richeldis de Faverches founder of the Holy House at Walsingham or England s Nazareth the learned Hildegard of Bingen Hadewijch of Brabant exemplary voice of the Beguine tradition of love mysticism charismatic traveller and pilgrim Margery Kempe and anchoress Julian of Norwich all challenged traditional male scholastic theology Designed for the use of undergraduate student and general reader alike this attractive survey provides an introduction to thirteen remarkable women and sets their ideas in context
