PARTICULARS OF OFFENCE(SEE SECOND SCHEDULE OF C.P.C)	On the 16th day of October, 2024 at Nakuru Law Courts, Chief Magistrate Sinore issued an order to confine the narcotic exhibits designated NO.002 in the case of Republic v. Sindiga Misc. Application 116 of 2024 to which a ruling had been issued by the said magistrate within the court premises. Incidentally, the exhibits of market value, Ksh.17,000,000 got stolen within the weekend. The Chief Magistrate's insistence to give the order withholding the exhibits contrary to section 65(f) and 68(a) of the Magistrates Registry Manual shows that she had interest in the exhibits and thus probable cause to conspire to steal the exhibits with Mr. Zubeida, a suspected drug dealer with whom the said magistrate was seen to be in close communication with through a series of meetings held in Xenon Hotel, Milimani Sub-County, Nakuru County between the 11 th and the 14 th of October consistently from 6.30 PM to 8.00 PM as recounted by witnesses and captured by CCTV footage belonging to the establishment.

Procedures in Criminal Law in Kenya Momanyi Bwonwong'a, 1994 Essentials of Criminal Procedure in Kenya Patrick Kiage, 2010 Written in a clear concise and engaging style this book presents the entire criminal process in a simple yet authoritative and informative way The core principles that underpin the criminal procedure their rationale and assumptions are well articulated and critiqued In addition the book presents by way of illustration a comprehensive range of the latest local judicial decisions A Handbook on Criminal Procedure in Kenya Patrick L. O. Lumumba, 1998 Criminal Procedure in Uganda and Kenya Douglas Brown, 1970 The Criminal Trial Process Irene Maina, 2009 An Introduction to Kenya Law Kenya Institute of Administration, 1975 The Ashgate Research Companion to International Criminal Law Yvonne McDermott, 2016-03-23 International criminal law is at a crucial point in its history and development and the time is right for practitioners academics and students to take stock of the lessons learnt from the past fifteen years as the international community moves towards an increasingly uni polar international criminal legal order with the International Criminal Court ICC at the helm This unique Research Companion takes a critical approach to a wide variety of theoretical practical legal and policy issues surrounding and underpinning the operation of international criminal law as applied by international criminal tribunals The book is divided into four main parts The first part analyses international crimes and modes of liability with a view to identifying areas which have been inconsistently or misguidedly interpreted overlooked to date or are likely to be increasingly significant in future The second part examines international criminal processes and procedures and here the authors discuss issues such as victim participation and the rights of the accused The third part is a discussion of complementarity and sentencing while the final part of the book looks at international criminal justice in context The authors raise issues which are likely to provide the most significant challenges and most promising opportunities for the continuing development of this body of law As international criminal law becomes more established as a distinct discipline it becomes imperative for international criminal scholarship to provide a degree of critical analysis both of individual legal issues and of the international criminal project as a whole This book represents an important collective effort to introduce an element of legal realism or critical legal studies into the academic discourse The African Court of Justice and Human and Peoples' Rights in Context Charles C. Jalloh, Kamari M. Clarke, Vincent O. Nmehielle, 2019-05-16 This volume analyses the prospects and challenges of the African Court of Justice and Human and Peoples Rights in context The book is for all readers interested in African institutions and contemporary global challenges of peace security human rights and international law This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Compendium of Key Documents Relating to Human Rights and HIV in Eastern and Southern Africa, 2008 The compendium of key Documents relating to human rights and HIV in Eastern and Southern Africa provides instrument policies and cases which are relevant to HIV AIDS Department of Justice Oversight United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the

Judiciary,2002 Violence Against Women and Criminal Justice in Africa: Volume I Emma Charlene

Lubaale,Ashwanee Budoo-Scholtz,2021-11-27 This book examines violence against women in Africa and criminal justice from the perspective of African scholars practitioners and experts As a global and long standing issue violence against women is gaining public visibility across the African continent with some states announcing a national crisis warranting immediate redress At the global level the elimination of all forms of violence against all women and girls forms a key part of United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 5 Gender Equality Split across two volumes these books present a comprehensive analysis of the latest research and theories principles and practices of criminal justice systems criminal justice accountability mechanisms and the key challenges women face in their quest for justice on the African continent Volume I focusses on legislation and its impact the limitations of criminal justice responses and the cultural and social norms regarding access to justice Volume II examines sexual violence and vulnerable women s access to justice in Africa They adopt a comparative approach that highlight gaps and good practices to provide a rich source of authoritative information for promoting an intra African dialogue and cross fertilization of ideas across the different criminal justice traditions in Africa Both volumes seek to advance discussions on eliminating violence against women in Africa and speak to those interested in criminal justice violence gender studies and African legal studies The Crimes and Sentencing Kai Ambos,Alexander Heinze,Peter

Rackow,Eric Armbricht,2022 International criminal law and justice is a flourishing field which has led in recent years to new international criminal tribunals and new mechanisms for investigation and holding criminals to account These developments have in turn led to an increasing volume and greater consolidation of case law and even more scholarly attention The second edition of this volume of Kai Ambos seminal treatise has been revised and rewritten in parts to provide coverage of recent developments in the Special Part of international criminal law namely the specific crimes and sentencing Amongst other updates there are significant extensions of the discussion on sexual and gender based crimes the introduction of environmental crimes into international criminal law further elaboration on the nexus requirement in war crimes and asymmetrical conflicts e g ISIS and reference to the newly introduced war crimes of the ICC Statute and of the peculiarities of cyber attacks and other emerging activities The volume complements Volume I of the treatise on issues relevant to the foundations general part of international criminal law and general principles of international criminal justice Taken together with the other new editions of the three volume series this second edition provides an exhaustive guide to every aspect of international criminal law from fundamental principles to procedures and implementation Kai Ambos Treatise remains an indispensable reference work for academics and practitioners of international criminal law The Cunning of Gender

Violence Lila Abu-Lughod,Rema Hammami,Nadera Shalhoub-Kevorkian,2023-06-30 The Cunning of Gender Violence focuses on how a once visionary feminist project has folded itself into contemporary world affairs Combating violence against women and gender based violence constitutes a highly visible and powerful agenda enshrined in international governance and law and embedded in state violence and global securitization Case studies on Palestine Bangladesh Iran India Pakistan Israel and Turkey as well as on UN and US policies trace the silences and omissions along with the experiences of those subjected to violence to question the rhetoric that claims the agenda as a feminist success story Because religion and racialized ethnicity particularly the Muslim question run so deeply through the institutional structures of the agenda the contributions explore ways it may be affirming or enabling rationales and systems of power including civilizational hierarchies that harm the very people it seeks to protect Contributors Lila Abu Lughod Nina Berman Inderpal Grewal Rema Hammami Janet R Jakobsen Shenila Khoja Moolji Vasuki Nesiah Samira Shackel Sima Shakhsari Nadera Shalhoub Kevorkian Dina M Siddiqi Shahla Talebi Leti Volpp Rafia Zakaria Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1972-03-21 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2005-06-30 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya

Prosecutorial Discretion in the International Criminal Court Farid Mohammed Rashid,2021-12-15 This book provides the first scholarly investigation of prosecutorial discretion in the International Criminal Court ICC from an interdisciplinary perspective This work analyses the discretionary power of the ICC prosecutor and its scope It explains that there is a tendency to overlook the necessity of distinguishing between the various usages of discretion when exercised as a power authorised by the law and effect when applying indeterminate legal thresholds The author argues that the latter indeterminacy may give decision makers an unwarranted opportunity to exercise a wide range of discretion where extra legal factors may be considered In comparison prosecutorial discretion allows decision makers to consider extra legal considerations This book also discusses the relevance of political considerations within the decision making process in the context of the exercise of prosecutorial discretion It suggests that there need not be a conflict between the broad sense of justice as outlined in the Statute and political factors in giving effect to decisions This book will be of interest to students of international law global governance and international relations The Constitution and Government of Kenya H. B. Ndoria Gicheru,Kabuya Miano,1987

Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1995-11-01 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Institutional Supports for the International Rule of Law Charles Sampford,Ramesh Thakur,2014-08-27 The rule of law is widely seen as the cornerstone of any effective polity and increasingly a vital component of the international political system If the international rule of law were to be strengthened it would greatly contribute to trade security human rights and global cooperation in a range of fields Yet in many areas the rule of law seems almost absent in international affairs This book explores the institutions that support the effectiveness of the rule of law domestically It focuses on the extent to which similar institutions already exist at international level and analyses the possibility of their further development The authors speculate on how the international rule of law might be advanced in the future thereby suggesting potential strategies for strengthening the international rule of law Adopting an interdisciplinary approach and combining the fields of international relations politics and law this book covers a range institutions including UN Security Council International Court of Justice Human rights machinery Regional human rights International Criminal Court World Trade Organization International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations It will be of strong interest to students and scholars of international relations international organisations global governance international law migration law international peace and security law applied ethics political economy political science and sociology

The International Criminal Court and Africa Charles Chernor Jalloh, Ilias Bantekas, 2017-10-06 Africa has been at the forefront of contemporary global efforts towards ensuring greater accountability for international crimes But the continent's early embrace of international criminal justice seems to be taking a new turn with the recent resistance from some African states claiming that the emerging system of international criminal law represents a new form of imperialism masquerading as international rule of law This book analyses the relationship and tensions between the International Criminal Court ICC and Africa It traces the origins of the confrontation between African governments both acting individually and within the framework of the African Union and the permanent Hague based ICC Leading commentators offer valuable insights on the core legal and political issues that have confused the relationship between the two sides and expose the uneasy interaction between international law and international politics They offer suggestions on how best to continue the fight against impunity using national ICC and regional justice mechanisms while taking into principled account the views and interests of African States
