Frantz Fanon David Macey, 2012-11-13 Born in Martinique Frantz Fanon 1925-61 trained as a psychiatrist in Lyon before taking up a post in colonial Algeria He had already experienced racism as a volunteer in the Free French Army in which he saw combat at the end of the Second World War In Algeria Fanon came into contact with the Front de Libération Nationale whose ruthless struggle for independence was met with exceptional violence from the French forces He identified closely with the liberation movement and his political sympathies eventually forced him out the country whereupon he became a propagandist and ambassador for the FLN as well as a seminal anticolonial theorist David Macey's eloquent life of Fanon provides a comprehensive account of a complex individual's personal intellectual and political development It is also a richly detailed depiction of postwar French culture Fanon is revealed as a flawed and passionate humanist deeply committed to eradicating colonialism Now updated with new historical material Frantz Fanon remains the definitive biography of a truly revolutionary thinker Frantz Fanon, Psychiatry and Politics Nigel C. Gibson, Roberto Beneduce, 2017-09-25 The revolutionary and psychiatrist Frantz Fanon was a foundational figure in postcolonial and decolonial thought and practice yet his psychiatric work still has only been studied peripherally That is in part because most of his psychiatric writings have remained untranslated With a focus on Fanon's key psychiatry texts Frantz Fanon Psychiatry and Politics considers Fanon's psychiatric writings as materials anticipating as well as accompanying Fanon's better known work written between 1952 and 1961 Black Skin White Masks A Dying Colonialism Toward the African Revolution The Wretched of the Earth Both clinical and political they draw on another notion of psychiatry that intersects history ethnology philosophy and psychoanalysis The authors argue that Fanon's work inaugurates a critical ethnopsychiatry based on a new concept of culture anchored to historical events particular situations and lived experience and on the relationship between the psychological and the cultural Thus Gibson and Beneduce contend that Fanon's psychiatric writings also express Fanon's wish as he puts it in The Wretched of the Earth to develop a new way of thinking not only for us but for humanity
