Lancashire and Cheshire from AD1540 C. B. Phillips, J.H. Smith, 2014-06-23 This series fully illustrated with maps and half tones is written for general readers as well as the student In illuminating the anonymous lives of our predecessors it will when complete substantially enrich our understanding of the many histories which together make up the history of England This authoritative volume surveys the modern history of the counties of Lancashire Merseyside Greater Manchester and Cheshire In 1540 this was a backward area poor underpopulated and conservative During the seventeenth and early eighteenth century the spread of the first cottage industries to the mills and the mines transformed the region into one of the engines of Britain s nineteenth century greatness The causes the costs and the consequences of that transformation are vividly portrayed in this very readable text Offers a succinct account and analysis of the first region to experience the developed factory system Discusses the rise dominance and decline of the region which has parallels across the country and the world Provides essential background text for the students of local history Assumes no previous knowledge of the region

Evidence in Context Jonathan Doak, Claire McGourlay, Mark Thomas, 2012-05-16 Evidence in Context explains the key concepts of evidence law in England and Wales clearly and concisely set against the backdrop of the broader social and theoretical contexts It informs students of the major debates within the field providing an explanation as to how and why the law has developed as it has This third edition has been expanded to cover the field of civil evidence alongside its traditional criminal focus It has also been thoroughly revised and updated to take into account recent developments in the law and the considerable amount of case law that has emerged since publication of the previous edition This edition includes a new chapter structure with new chapters on the adversarial trial and suspect evidence Updated features include self test questions and advice on further reading at the end of each chapter key learning points which summarise the chapter as well as highlighting the most important issues New and updated chapters on topics such as adversarial trial witnesses and suspect evidence Addressing the evolving case law on subjects such as hearsay and bad character which were overhauled in the Criminal Justice Act 2003 this book is an essential purchase for anyone studying evidence law Algebra, 2002 The

New Dimension of International Terrorism Stefan M. Aubrey, 2004 The events of September 11 2001 confronted the United States and the rest of the World with the reality of a new dimension of international terrorism This new dimension did not start nor end with the attacks against the World Trade Center or the Pentagon but began in the 1990s This study examines the new dimension of international terrorism contrasting it with the classical terrorism the predominantly left wing terrorist movements of the 1960s 1980s in Europe which were a subset of the bipolar geo political arena The author establishes the relationship of radical Islamist movements to the terrorist groups of the new dimension principally focusing on Al Qaeda in providing the motivation for committing catastrophic terrorist acts looks at the shadowy world of terrorist financing and makes suggestions regarding international counter terrorist strategies Consumer Behavior Analysis

Donald A. Hantula, Victoria K. Wells, 2014-01-21 Consumption is the primary economic activity in our post industrial society We are consumers not producers Consumer behavior analysis is leading heterodox marketing scholarship and innovative applied behavioral work with much to offer both constituencies This volume shows how consumer behavior analysis fits within a larger scale approach to marketing consumer psychology behavior analysis and organizational behavior management Describing both theoretical analyses and empirical studies including laboratory experiments in e commerce in store experiments in grocery shopping and an analysis of the counterfeit goods market this book is a working example of translational research It contains tools and studies to help understand contemporary consumer behavior particularly for those in marketing Scholars will appreciate the theory and real world applications evident in each chapter when considering their own research direction All students of marketing theory behavior analysis and consumer choice will find this collection a thought provoking tool for further understanding of a new behavioral approach to marketing strategy consumer decisions and marketing firms This book comprises articles originally published in the Journal of Organizational Behavior Management

Japan's Sea Lane Security Euan Graham, 2005-11-16 This is the first major English language study to explore the broad and longstanding connections between Japan's national security and the safety of its sea lanes Tracing issues from pre and post 1945 eras the book explores how Japan's concerns with sea lane protection have developed across such diverse fields as military strategy diplomacy trade policy energy security and law enforcement Drawing upon case study material and primary research including interviews with officials and security analysts the book presents a chronological analysis of Japan's sea lane security While Japan's security policies have recently undergone relatively rapid change a historical treatment of sea lane security issues reveals long term continuity in security policymakers perceptions and responses regarding Japan's defence and foreign policy Revealing a neglected but important aspect of Japan's military and economic security the book investigates why officials and analysts continue to portray the defence of Japan's sea lanes as a matter of life and death

Thought Wilfrid Parsons, Francis Xavier Talbot, Gerald Groveland Walsh, 1983 Inside Lenin's Government Lara Doubs, 2018-02-22 Lara Doubs examines the practical functioning and internal political culture of the early Soviet government cabinet the Council of People's Commissars Sovnarkom under Lenin This study elucidates the process by which Sovnarkom's governmental decision making authority was transferred to Communist Party bodies in the early years of Soviet power and traces the day to day operation of the supreme state organ The book argues that Sovnarkom was the principal executive body of the early Soviet government until the Politburo gradually usurped this role during the Civil War Using a range of archival source material Lara Doubs re interprets early Soviet political history as a period where fledgling Soviet rather than simply Communist Party power was attempted but ultimately failed when pressures of Civil War and socio economic dislocation encouraged the centralising and authoritarian rather than democratic strand of Bolshevism to predominate Inside Lenin's Government explores the basic mechanics of governance by looking at the frequency of meetings types of business discussed processes of decision making and the administrative backdrop as well as the key personalities of Sovnarkom It then considers the reasons behind the shift in executive power from state to party in this period which resulted in an abnormal situation where as Leon Trotsky commented in 1923 leadership by the party gives way to administration by its organs

The United States Space Force and the Future of American Space Policy Jeremy Grunert,2022-10-17

The creation of the U S Space Force triggered an outpouring of responses ranging from ridicule and derision to applause and relief to fear and concern It also raised questions about the future of conflict in outer space Through an exploration of the legal context of military space activities the history of American military space policy and Great Power space interactions during and after the Cold War The United States Space Force and the Future of American Space Policy ultimately concludes that the U S Space Force is a natural outgrowth of American space policy but is no more likely to threaten space security than previous activity in the space domain
