Dominican Women and Renaissance Art Ann Roberts,2016-12-05 Starting from an inventory and other documents Ann Roberts has identified some 30 works of art that originated from the convent of San Domenico of Pisa She here examines those objects commissioned for and made by the nuns during the fifteenth century some of the objects included have never before been published One of her goals in this study is to bring into the discussion of Renaissance art a body of images that have been previously overlooked because they come from a non Florentine context and because they do not fit modern notions of the development of Renaissance style She also analyzes the function of the images social as well as religious within the context of a female Dominican convent Finally she offers descriptions of and documentation for the process of patronage as it was practiced by cloistered women and the making of art in such enclosures The author presents a catalogue of works which gives basic data and bibliography for the objects described in the text Roberts offers other valuable resources in the appendices including unpublished C19th inventories of the objects in the convent at various moments documents regarding the commission of works of art for the convent letters written by the nuns a list of the Prioresses of San Domenico lists of nuns at different points in the fifteenth and early sixteenth century and a list of the relics owned by the convent in the sixteenth century Roberts firmly grounds her interpretation in the values of the Order to which the nuns belonged and in the political and social concerns of their city    Piero Della Francesca Marilyn Aronberg Lavin,1990-06-22 Lavin s study of the Piero della Francesca Flagellation at Urbino as befits this exquisite masterpiece is a model of lucid and precise exposition as well as being an exciting exercise of scholarship Informed with the intellectual rigour of Scholastic exegesis it deserves to be placed with the classic readings of fifteenth and sixteenth century works by Erwin Panofsky and Edgar Wind Spectator Lavin leaves the picture more wondrous than before a simultaneous triumph of the theological and biographical as well as pictorial imagination Rackstraw Downes New York Times Book Review    Millard Meiss.
