Latour and the Humanities Rita Felski, Stephen Muecke, 2020-09-01 How does the work of influential theorist Bruno Latour offer a fresh angle on the practices and purposes of the humanities In recent years defenses of the humanities have tended to argue along predictable lines the humanities foster empathy the humanities encourage critical thinking the humanities offer a counterweight to the cold calculations of the natural and social sciences The essays in Latour and the Humanities take a different approach Exploring the relevance of theorist Bruno Latour's work they argue for attachments and entanglements between the humanities and the sciences while looking closely at the interests institutions and intellectual projects that shape the humanities within and beyond the university The collection which is written by a group of highly distinguished scholars from around the world is divided into two sections In the first part authors engage in depth with Latour's work while also rethinking the ties between the humanities and the sciences Essays argue for greater attention to the nonhuman world the urgency of climate change and more nuanced views of universities as institutions The second half of the volume contains essays that reflect on Latour's influence on the practices of specific disciplines including art the digital humanities film studies and political theory Inspiring conversation about the relevance of actor network theory for research and teaching in the humanities Latour and the Humanities offers a substantial introduction to Latour's work while discussing the humanities without falling back on the genres of either the sermon or the jeremiad This volume will be of interest to all those searching for fresh perspectives on the value and importance of humanistic disciplines and thought Contributors David J Alworth Anders Blok Claudia Breger Dipesh Chakrabarty Yves Citton Steven Connor Gerard de Vries Simon During Rita Felski Francis Halsall Graham Harman Antoine Hennion Casper Bruun Jensen Bruno Latour Heather Love Patrice Maniglier Stephen Muecke Barbara Herrnstein Smith Nigel Thrift Michael Witmore

The Women Who Made Early Disneyland Cindy Mediavilla, Kelsey Knox, 2024-01-04 Although historians have begun to recognize the accomplishments of Disney Studio's female animators the women who contributed to the early success of Disneyland remain for the most part unacknowledged Indeed in celebrating the park's ten year anniversary in 1965 Walt Disney thanked all the boys who've been a part of this thing even though hundreds of women had also been instrumental in designing building and operating Disneyland since before its grand opening in July 1955 Seeking to reclaim women's place in the early history of Disneyland The Women Who Made Early Disneyland highlights the female Disney employees and contract workers who helped make the park one of the most popular U S destinations during its first ten years Some like artist Mary Blair Imagineers Harriet Burns and Alice Davis Slue Foot Sue Betty Taylor and Disneyland s first ambassador Julie Reihm eventually became Disney legends Others remain less well known including landscape architect Ruth Shellhorn parade choreographer Miriam Nelson Aunt Jemima s Kitchen hostess Alyene Lewis and Tiny Kline who at age seventy one became the first Tinker Bell to fly over Disneyland This one of a kind book examines the lives and achievements of the women who made early Disneyland

Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge Peter B. Kaufman, 2021-02-23 How do we create a universe of truthful and verifiable information available to everyone In The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge MIT Open Learning s Peter B Kaufman describes the powerful forces that have purposely crippled our efforts to share knowledge widely and freely Popes and their inquisitors emperors and their hangmen commissars and their secret police throughout history all have sought to stanch the free flow of information Kaufman writes of times when the Bible could not be translated you d be burned for trying when dictionaries and encyclopedias were forbidden when literature and science and history books were trashed and pulped sometimes along with their authors and when efforts to develop public television and radio networks were quashed by private industry In the 21st century the enemies of free thought have taken on new and different guises giant corporate behemoths sprawling national security agencies gutted regulatory commissions Bereft of any real moral compass or sense of social responsibility their work to surveil and control us are no less nefarious than their 16th and 18th and 20th century predecessors They are all part of what Kaufman calls the Monsterverse The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge maps out the opportunities to mobilize for the fight ahead of us With the Internet and other means of media production and distribution video especially at hand knowledge institutions like universities libraries museums and archives have a special responsibility now to counter misinformation disinformation and fake news and especially efforts to control the free flow of information A film and video producer and former book publisher Kaufman begins to draft a new social contract for our networked video age He draws his inspiration from those who fought tooth and nail against earlier incarnations of the Monsterverse including William Tyndale in the 16th century Denis Diderot in the 18th untold numbers of Soviet and Central and East European dissidents in the 20th many of whom paid the ultimate price Their successors Advocates of free knowledge like Aaron Swartz of free software like Richard Stallman of an enlightened public television and radio network like James Killian of a freer Internet like Tim Berners Lee of fuller rights and freedoms like Edward Snowden All have been striving to secure for us a better world marked by the right balance between state society and private gain The concluding section of the book its largest piece builds on their work drawing up a progressive agenda for how today s free thinkers can band together now to fight and win With everything shut and everyone going online The New Enlightenment and the Fight to Free Knowledge is a rousing call to action that expands the definition of what it means to be a citizen in the 21st century
