Postconflict Development Meeting New Challenges:

Postconflict Development Gerd Junne, Willemijn Verkoren, 2022 With the proliferation of civil wars since the end of the Cold War many developing countries now exist in a postconflict environment posing enormous development challenges for the societies affected as well as for international actors Postconflict Development addresses these challenges in a range of vital sectors security justice economic policy education the media agriculture health and the environment in countries around the globe The authors focus on the need to move beyond emergency relief to create new social and economic structures that can serve as the foundations for a lasting peace Prosperity the authors acknowledge does not guarantee peace but a lack of economic development will almost certainly lead to renewed violence This conviction informs their thorough discussion of the policy dilemmas confronted in postconflict situations and a range of concrete successful approaches to resolving them

Postconflict Development Gerd Junne, Willemijn Verkoren, 2005 A comprehensive discussion of the specific development challenges faced in postconflict societies and a range of concrete successful approaches to confronting those challenges

When War Ends David J. Francis, 2016-02-17 This volume critically examines what happens when war formally ends the difficult and complex challenges and opportunities for winning the peace and reconciling divided communities By reviewing a case study of the West African state of Sierra Leone potential lessons for other parts of the world can be gained Sierra Leone has emerged as a successful model of liberal peacebuilding that is now popularly advertised and promoted by the international community as a powerful example of a country that they finally got right Concerns about how successful a model Sierra Leone actually is are outlined in this project As such this volume

Violence in Post-Conflict Societies Anders Themnér, 2011-05-10 This book compares post civil war societies to look at the presence or absence of organized violence analysing why some ex combatants return to organised violence and others do not Even though former fighters have been identified as a major source of insecurity there have been few efforts to systematically examine why some ex combatants re engage in organized violence while others do not This book compares the presence or absence of organized violence in different ex combatant communities former fighters that used to belong to the same armed faction and who share a common horizontal identity based on shared war and peacetime experiences in the Republic of Congo ex Cobras Cocoyes and Ninjas and Sierra Leone ex Armed Forces Revolutionary Council Civil Defense Force and Revolutionary United Front The main determinants of ex combatant violence are whether former fighters have access to elites and to second tier individuals such as former mid level commanders who can act as intermediaries between the two By utilizing relationships based on selective incentives and social networks these two kinds of remobilizers are able to generate the needed enticements and feelings of affinity trust or fear to convince ex combatants to resort to arms These findings demonstrate that the outbreak of ex combatant violence can only be understood by more clearly incorporating an actor perspective focusing on three levels of analysis the elite midlevel and grass root This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding civil wars post conflict reconstruction war and conflict studies security studies and IR

Transformative Transitional Justice and the Malleability of Post-Conflict States Padraig McAuliffe, 2017-03-31 Despite the growing focus on issues of socio economic transformation in contemporary transitional justice the path dependencies imposed by the political economy of war to peace transitions and the limitations imposed by weak statehood are seldom considered This book explores transitional justice s prospects for seeking economic justice and reform of structures of poverty in the specific context of post conflict states Post-Conflict Tajikistan John Heathershaw, 2009-05-07 Post Soviet post conflict Tajikistan is an under studied and poorly understood case in conflict studies literature Since 2000 this Central Asian state has seen major political violence end countrywide order emerge and the peace agreement between the parties of the 1990s civil war hold Superficially Tajikistan appears to be a case of successful international intervention for liberal peacebuilding yet the Tajik peace is characterised by authoritarian governance Via discourse analysis and extensive fieldwork including participant observation with international organizations the author examines how peacebuilding is understood and practised The book challenges received wisdom that peacebuilding is a process of democratisation or institutionalisation showing how interventions have inadvertently served to facilitate an increasingly authoritarian peace and fostered popular accommodation and avoidance strategies Chapters investigate assistance to political parties and elections the security sector and community development and illustrate how transformative aims are thwarted whilst success is simulated for an audience of international donors At the same time the book charts the emergence of a legitimate order with properties of authority sovereignty and livelihoods Providing a challenge to the theoretical literature on peacebuilding and concentrating on an under studied Central Asian state this book will be of interest to academics working on Peace Studies International Relations and Central Asian Studies The Dilemmas of

Thiessen, 2013-11-08 The international community has followed up its 2001 invasion of Afghanistan with a complex multi faceted peacebuilding project However informed observers believe that this Western led mission in Afghanistan has failed to address the inherent peacebuilding needs of Afghanistan and has hindered the formation of a locally experienced sustainable peace In response emerging peacebuilding theories and rhetoric have pointed to an urgent need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and strategies that hold local Afghan ownership of peacebuilding activities as a central concern This book responds to this need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and 1 introduces the topic of local ownership of peacebuilding in Afghanistan 2 surveys current shifts in peacebuilding theory and practice that are only starting to be realized on the ground 3 sets the context for a discussion of local ownership of peacebuilding 4 reports on the perceptions of foreign and Afghan peacebuilding leaders working in Afghanistan in regards to the journey towards local ownership of peacebuilding and 5 suggests the creation of a locally designed and led conflict transformation system that might help restructure local foreign relations and advance the journey towards Afghan ownership of peacebuilding Peacebuilding and Friction Annika

Björkdahl, Kristine Höglund, Gearoid Millar, Jair van der Lijn, Willemijn Verkoren, 2016-03-02 This book aims to understand the processes and outcomes that arise from frictional encounters in peacebuilding when global and local forces meet Building a sustainable peace after violent conflict is a process that entails competing ideas political contestation and transformation of power relations This volume develops the concept of friction to better analyse the interplay between global ideas actors and practices and their local counterparts The chapters examine efforts undertaken to promote sustainable peace in a variety of locations such as Cambodia Sri Lanka Afghanistan and Sierra Leone These case analyses provide a nuanced understanding not simply of local processes or of the hybrid or mixed agencies ideas and processes that are generated but of the complex interactions that unfold between all of these elements in the context of peacebuilding intervention The analyses demonstrate how the ambivalent relationship between global and local actors leads to unintended and sometimes counterproductive results of peacebuilding interventions The approach of this book with its focus on friction as a conceptual tool advances the peacebuilding research agenda and adds to two ongoing debates in the peacebuilding field the debate on hybridity and the debate on local agency and local ownership In analysing frictional encounters this volume prepares the ground for a better understanding of the mixed impact peace initiatives have on post conflict societies This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution security studies and international relations in general International

Peacebuilding Alpaslan Ozerdem, SungYong Lee, 2015-12-14 International Peacebuilding offers a concise practical and accessible introduction to the growing field of peacebuilding for students and practitioners This new textbook comprises three parts each dealing with a key aspect of peacebuilding Part I defines the core concepts and theoretical discussions that provide the philosophical grounds for contemporary peacebuilding activities Part II divides the procedures of peacebuilding into three phases and examines some of the important features of each phase Part III examines the key areas of the practice of peacebuilding The volume approaches peacebuilding from the viewpoints of individual actors or institutions introducing a range of theoretical discussions with which students can critically examine contemporary peacebuilding practice as well as presenting detailed case studies for key issues highlighted in the text. In doing so the book aims to provide more concrete ideas on how peacebuilding programmes are planned and implemented in the field and which major issues should be addressed by peacebuilding practitioners. This book will be essential reading for all students of peacebuilding, conflict transformation and post conflict reconstruction and recommended reading for students of international organisations, international security and IR in general. Land and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Jon Unruh, Rhodri Williams, 2013-07-18

Claims to land and territory are often a cause of conflict and land issues present some of the most contentious problems for post conflict peacebuilding. Among the land related problems that emerge during and after conflict are the exploitation of land based resources in the absence of authority, the disintegration of property rights and institutions, the territorial effect of battlefield gains and losses and population displacement. In the wake of violent conflict, reconstitution of a viable land rights system is crucial; an effective post conflict land policy can foster economic recovery, help restore the rule of law and strengthen political stability. But the reestablishment of land ownership, land use and access rights for individuals and communities is often complicated and problematic and poor land policies can lead to renewed tensions. In twenty one chapters by twenty five authors, this book considers experiences with and approaches to post conflict land issues in seventeen countries and in varied social and geographic settings. Highlighting key concepts that are important for understanding how to address land rights in the wake of armed conflict, the book provides a theoretical and practical framework for policy makers, researchers, practitioners and students. Land and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative to identify and analyze lessons in post conflict peacebuilding and natural resource management. The project has generated six edited books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners, policy makers and researchers. Other books in the series address high value resources, water, livelihoods, assessing and restoring resources and governance. Improving Democracy Assistance National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Development, Security, and Cooperation, Committee on Evaluation of USAID Democracy Assistance Programs, 2008-06-26

Over the past 25 years the United States has made support for the spread of democracy to other nations an increasingly important element of its national security policy. These efforts have created a growing demand to find the most effective means to assist in building and strengthening democratic governance under varied conditions. Since 1990 the U S Agency for International Development (USAID) has supported democracy and governance (DG) programs in approximately 120 countries and territories, spending an estimated total of 8.47 billion in constant 2000 U S dollars between 1990 and 2005. Despite these substantial expenditures, our understanding of the actual impacts of USAID DG assistance on progress toward democracy remains limited and is the subject of much current debate in the policy and scholarly communities. This book by the National Research Council provides a roadmap to enable USAID and its partners to assess what works and what does not both retrospectively and in the future through improved monitoring and evaluation methods and rebuilding USAID's internal capacity to build absorb and act on improved knowledge

Dead Ends of Transition Michael Dauderstädt, Arne Schildberg, 2006 Dead ends of transition rentier economies and protectorates Michael Dauderstädt Transformation of Protectorates building effective accountable states Barnett R Rubin Authoritarian rentier states in the broader development context Richard M Auty The Resource curse as empirical overview Indra De Soysa Institutions human capital and diversification of rentier economies Thorvaldur Gylfason Context path dependency and oil based development in the Gulf of Guinea Ricardo M S Soares de Olivera Oil funds as a policy instrument to promote transparency and accountability for economic development in oil rich countries Ugo Fasano Rents reform and authoritarianism in the Middle East Oliver Schlumberger Oil wealth and regime change Benjamin Smith Avoiding the resource curse what can we learn from the case of Botswana Transparency International Regulating resource governance the role of governments companies and civil society organizations Wolf Christian Paes Economic causes and consequences of civil war a discussion of the possible policy interventions Paul Collier and Anke Hoeffler Development challenges for post conflict protectorates Willemijn Verkoren The transformation of protectorates case study of Iraq with particular reference to the Central Bank Simon Gray Transforming Liberia and Sierra Leone a paradox of external intervention Judy Smith H c hn Transforming Kosovo searching the balance between market discipline and political stability Andreas Wittkowsky Making sure that institutions matter democratization through undemocratic means in Bosnia Herzegovina Thorsten Gromes Transformation in European protectorates from Sarajevo to Pristina Gerald Knauss Liberal Peacebuilding and Global Governance David Roberts, 2011-03 This book examines the limits to cosmopolitan liberal peacebuilding caused by its preoccupation with the values and assumptions of neoliberal global governance The peace people experience is determined by the processes privileged in peacebuilding This book is about four things that shape the processes involved First it is a critique of orthodox postconflict peacebuilding It takes the position that the present approach although seemingly hegemonic is routinely ignored or manipulated by elites and society and converted into a miasma that to some degree wastes the energies and opportunities involved Second it is about alternatives which invoke the kind of peace people might seek in postconflict places if they had more control over the process of peacebuilding a notion referred to here as popular peace It is thus not the kind of critical work that some describe as reflexive anti liberalism Rather it seeks alternatives that are grounded in the lives of people in postconflict spaces and which also reflect some of the essential values of Liberalism Third it is about the role of both informal and formal actors institutions and practices in the creation of such a peace For instance it is concerned with the legitimacy of informal practices that lie beyond Liberal tolerance and which are vital in the pursuit of everyday peace Fourth it is about a transversal rather than vertical or hierarchical relationship of global and local governance in securing a peace that reflects the needs and values of both In short this work is a response to the substantial inconsistencies that appear between peacebuilding rhetoric and everyday outcomes in postconflict places This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding post conflict statebuilding conflict studies global governance and International Relations in general The Evolution of Military Power in the West and Asia Pauline Eadie, Wyn Rees, 2015-09-16 This book investigates how states in both the West and Asia have responded to multi dimensional security challenges since the end of the Cold War focusing on military transformation Looking at a cross section of different countries this volume assesses how their armed forces have responded to a changing international security context The book investigates two main themes First how the process of military transformation in terms of technological advances and new ways of conducting warfare has impacted on the militaries of various countries These technologies are hugely expensive and the extent to which different states can afford them and the ability of these states to utilise these technologies differs greatly Second the volume investigates the social dimensions of military transformation It reveals the expanding breadth of tasks that contemporary armed forces have been required to address This includes the need for military forces to work with other actors such as non governmental agencies and humanitarian organisations and the ability of armed forces to fight asymmetric opponents and conduct post conflict reconstruction tasks The conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan exemplified how important the relationship between technological and social transformation has become This book will be of much interest to students of strategic studies military innovation Asian politics security studies and International Relations
