Rendez La Terre:

Camus Ray Davison,1997 This is the first full length study in English of Camus s life long fascination with the works of the Russian writer Feodor Dostoevsky The purpose of the book is to demonstrate the ways in which Dostoevsky s thought and fiction served to stimulate and crystallize Camus s own thinking Davison lucidly identifies the lines of divergence and counter arguments which Camus produced as answers to the challenge of Dostoevsky s Christian Tzarist vision of life The traditional methods of comparative literary criticism are jettisoned in favour of the more exciting claim that Camus s literary and philosophical texts can be read as precise and detailed replies to some of Dostoevsky s central beliefs about immortality religion and politics The study ranges freely over the entirety of the works of both major writers , Writing

Marginality in Modern French Literature Edward J. Hughes,2001-04-23 Writing Marginality in Modern French Literature first published in 2001 explores how cultural centres require the peripheral the outlawed and the deviant in order to define and bolster themselves It analyses the hierarchies of cultural value which inform the work of six modern French writers the exoticist Pierre Loti Paul Gauguin whose Noa Noa enacts European fantasies about Polynesia Proust who analyses such exemplary figures of exclusion and inclusion as the homosexual and the xenophobe Montherlant who claims to subvert colonialist values in La Rose de sable Camus who pleads an alienating detachment from the cultures of both metropolitan France and Algeria and Jean Genet Crucially Genet who was typecast as France s moral pariah in charting Palestinian statelessness in his last work Un Captif amoureux 1986 reflects ethically on the dispossession of the Other and the violence inherent in the West s marginalization of cultural difference The Algerian War Retold Meaghan Emery,2019-11-28 The Algerian War Retold Of Camus s Revolt and Postwar Reconciliation focuses on specific aspects of Albert Camus s ethical thought through a study of his writings in conjunction with late 20th and early 21st century works written by Franco Maghrebi authors on the topic of the Algerian War 1954 1962 It combines historical inquiry with literary analysis in order to examine the ways in which Camus s concept of revolt in his novels journalistic writing and philosophical essays reverberates in productions pertaining to that war Following an examination of Sartre s and Camus s debate over revolution and violence one that in another iteration asks whether FLN sponsored terrorism was justified The Algerian War Retold uncovers how today s writers have adopted paradigms common to both Sartre s and Camus s oeuvres when seeking to break the silence and influence France s national narrative In the end it attempts to answer the critical questions raised by literary acts of violence including whether Camusian ethics ultimately lead to justice for the Other in revolt These questions are particularly poignant in view of recent presidential declarations in response to years of active pressure applied by associations and other citizens groups prompting the French government to acknowledge the state s abandonment of the harkis condemn the repression of peaceful protest and recognize the French army s systematic use of torture in Algeria La Sainte Bible, Ou L'Ancien Et Le Nouveau Testament ,1858 Year Books of Edward II.: 9 Edward II, A.D. 1315 Year books (Edward II :
