stories identified as fiction but which illuminate with their own truths The index alone is a cornucopia of memories The variety of people and themes that are remembered and summoned into the book is impressive Some evoke nostalgia for a time that we didnt know was that good when we were living it some bring a laugh or a tear And the focus is always on the boys and the adults they became In addition to the foregoing I believe the best description of my book is contained in my INTRODUCTION which is therefore reproduced here in its entirety My older brother Al myself and my younger sister Henny all became half orphans upon the death of our mother in February 1929 Our father had to place us in orphanages when he found himself unable to provide the care required by a 9 year old boy his 7year old brother and 2 year old sister Al and I were placed in the Hebrew National Orphan Home on Tuckahoe Road in the outskirts of Yonkers NY while Henrietta was put into the Israel Orphan Asylum on East Second Street NYC This separation was necessary because the HNOH accepted only boys ages 6 to 16 later HS graduation whereas the IOA accepted boys and girls ages 2 to 5 It was while I was in the HNOH that I became a full fledged orphan when my father died in 1938 And Ive been a full fledged orphan ever since although I didnt start aging until just a few months ago when I turned 78 But some years before that my then new daughter in law Susan was describing my wife and myself to her mother including the fact that we were orphans my wife having been raised in the Pride of Judea Childrens Home on Dumont Ave in Brooklyn where I worked after I had left the HNOH To which Susans mother replied matter of factly Well so am I And so is your father Momentarily surprised Susan then elaborated No mom I mean they were orphaned as children and raised in orphanages Her mother hesitated and then said Oh This anecdote illustrates the fact that ultimately we all become orphans But that is not the focus of this work Its focus is the child who lost one or both parents at a young tender age and subsequently was placed in an institution the orphanage So when I titled this work OF AN AGING ORPHAN I wasnt focusing on an older person who had been orphaned as an adult but on an orphaned child who fortunately has been aging nicely I say fortunately because I Verbal Behavior Burrhus Frederic Skinner,1957
