

Academic background from the military. Mr. Taylor attended Southern College in Illinois and graduated with a B.A. Degree in economics and business administration.

In August of 1985, Mr. Taylor was hired to develop a recreation program for the Neighbors Community Center. With a staff of only himself and a maintenance man, it was a full-time job with just one pay. Working out in a small building that had been used as first addition to the recreation hall meant that almost everyone (Champion Basketball team to Howard Patis, Sam Middle, from those football beginnings, gave comparable to those of the new addition was a multi-sport hall with a field built later. A swimming pool was added in dependence on volunteers. He was involved in a program, most from Howard, and work in the local schools and region from the American Red Cross to local churches and youth and community groups, and was certified by the Florida State Health Department as swimming pool operator, becoming an expert in pool and general education. In 1989, the center moved into a new modern building with more staff and the Neighbors Community Center is known as "The Box".
