A Quest for Justice Mzukisi Ndara, 2021-10-01 It's a proverbial battle of David versus Goliath. A senior government employee has been embroiled in a bitter battle against one of the country's largest financiers, Wesbank. His story is mired in alleged fraud, corruption, and misconduct. The Grahamstown High Court this week dismissed with costs an appeal by Wesbank, a division of FirstRand, for the third time against earlier rulings made in favour of Mzukisi Ndara. In the pursuit for justice, Ndara has approached several high-ranking politicians, Parliament, as the custodian of the country's laws, the Hawks, and the courts. But 15 years into the battle, the matter has yet to be resolved. And some dockets containing vital evidence have gone missing. Ndara has now turned to the Director of Public Prosecutions as a last resort. Long and Winding Road for Justice Bulelwa Payi. Weekend Argus, March 19, 2019. Based on your statement together with police evidential material and the circumstances of this matter, Wesbank and/or its employees breached the contract in the form of misrepresentations and acted in violation of various statutes as alluded to in your reports. National Director of Public Prosecutions, NDPP Advocate Shamila Batohi, September 24, 2019. Your story needs to be told for business and government to understand they can't keep turning a blind eye to their people who believe the end justifies the means regarding profit making. Professor Thuli Madonsela, June 4, 2020. A seventeen-year journey of sheer guts and resilience. Dr. Charity Hove, October 6, 2021. It is a baffling, bewildering, and unsettling story best summarized by your insightful self-observation. Part One, page 31: my inner desire for truth. You write with fluency and power. The first part of your account embracing your earlier life is amusing, wry, entertaining, and in parts engrossing. The later parts make for more challenging reading because of the anguish of the cumulating injustices, delays, lawyerly, and institutional disingenuousness and evasions you suffered. Your account is truly a Dickensian tale of the law's delays and obscurities of lawyers and journalists' evasions with very occasional light points of courage, loyalty, and competence. Retired Constitutional Court Justice Edwin Cameron, September 6, 2021.

Dinesh Palipana, 2022-07-26 A puddle of water on a highway changed Dinesh Palipana's life forever. Halfway through medical school, Dinesh was involved in a catastrophic car accident that caused a cervical spinal cord injury. After his accident, his strength and determination saw him return to complete medical school, now with quadriplegia. Dinesh was the first quadriplegic medical intern in Queensland and the second person with quadriplegia to graduate medical school in Australia. Despite all of the pain and hardship he's faced, Dinesh now sees his accident as a turning point for the better in his life. He believes it has made him a better doctor with a better grasp of the concerns and fears of his patients and a more sensitive, open human. He fights for equal and equitable access for disabled people and is a compassionate and skilled doctor working in one of Australia's busiest hospitals. After everything he's been through, Dinesh believes he is now happier, stronger, and more capable than he was before the accident. It helped him to clarify what is important in his life and taught him that happiness and strength can always be found within. Praise for Stronger Dinesh's spirit of positivity and his love of life is astonishing. Thoughtful, powerful, and moving, Stronger is an exemplar of resilience. Dr. Richard Harris Dinesh Palipana is an incredible leader who has challenged the limits of mindset and belief. His contribution to Australia will be felt for generations.
