Kunz, 2020-04-23 Drawing from theories of the political economy of communication this book offers readers a comprehensive data rich assessment of contemporary sports television and its evolution Providing an in depth look at the ownership and regulation of sports television in the United States William M Kunz analyzes a range of platforms networks and sports with particular focus on the way ownership has become concentrated in five conglomerates AT T CBS Comcast Disney and Fox The end result of years of media consolidation is that broadcast networks are now married to cable and streaming services under a single conglomerate which has implications for the cost of contracts and the negotiation of distribution deals Examining multiple platforms networks and sports in an all inclusive manner this volume documents the evolution and current state of affairs of sports television With historic and current data on rights fees for sports television leagues and events as well as carriage fees and subscription levels for sports related cable and satellite services this comparative study offers critical information for students and scholars conducting research on sports television Celebrity and Mediated Social Connections Neil M. Alperstein,2019-05-16 Celebrity and Mediated Social

Connections is a critical examination of the multiple realities of the mediated culture we traverse extending from our imaginary inner worlds to the imagined communities of digital media Chapters explore the dialogic at work when we connect with celebrities and internalize aspects of their personas due to the various social roles they serve within our everyday lives What might begin as strong identification and internalization within our imaginary worlds in this digital age sometimes seeps out as we connect to celebrities their fans friends and followers in ways that were not formerly possible The book contains topics that range from the degradation of micro celebrities the role of celebrities in promoting prescription drugs and their role in contemporary social movements The common thread that runs through the book presents a mediated world that paradoxically allows if not encourages people to daydream engage in stream of consciousness thinking and fantasize about celebrities all while concurrently compelling us to engage in a digitally based objective world The possibility of interaction on and through digital media intensifies the emotional connection between celebrity and fan The more personal details one gives up the closer we feel we become digital intimacy based on the excessive self Digital media entice us to engage and remain tethered to technology staying continuously connected so as not to miss the latest post or meme To suggest we should build a proverbial wall between the two imaginary and objective worlds runs counter to the reality of an always on always connected culture in which we presently live □□□□□□□□ James Curtis Hepburn,1894 Streaming Culture

David Arditi,2021-04-15 Encouraging us to look beyond the seemingly limitless supply of multimedia content David Arditi calls attention to the underlying dynamics of instant viewing in which our access to our favourite binge worthy show blockbuster movie or hot new album release depends on any given service s willingness and ability to license it Against the Tide Lester Fisher,2021-11-11 Peace Corps invited Lester Michael Klunness to Kenya he served in the idyllic Hills of Taita where began a romantic involvement with a Taita woman and her 5 children Their happy two years together ended when he was exiled from Taita by his military induction notice By happenstance he was declared unfit for military service but Richard Nixon changed the course of his life The Peace Corps budget cuts excluded him from returning to Kenya and to re assignment He worked for a beekeeper and then returned to college to pursue his master s degree After a successful quarter at UC Davis he happened on a summer job at Weyerhaeuser Co Research Division He successfully moved up to a permanent position He believed he could afford to bring the African family to America It took years and they did not all come at the same time Finally he got them all to the little four acre homestead in Tenino Washington Life was not easy but the family farmed The two oldest youths got jobs and established their own lives The younger three and their American born brother were able to attend local schools and life seemed to be going well Then Weyerhaeuser decided to move their research divisions to an urban facility at Federal Way WA this was a disaster for our family Lester told his manager that he would not continue as a permanent employee but would contract his services At first the Company hired him but it was not enough He took a summer job as a raspberry farm manager When he returned to the Weyerhaeuser Co base he taught class and did contracts for Weyerhaeuser but could not earn enough from contracts outside of the Weyerhaeuser The situation became desperate The only solution was to return to UC Davis and reenroll in the master s degree program and receive financial aid Contracts began to pour in so he was able to support the family at home Finally he was hired on a federal project by which he would have been able to return the whole family to Africa The wife came to Davis and signed a contract on married student housing but she never agreed to move the family to Davis He broke off his education and returned to Washington to find out what had happened She was not at home but had rented out the house and moved the family to Tacoma He took the summer manager job on the raspberry farm hoping to resolve the family issues It failed and a young woman convinced him to return to UC Davis and finish his degree One young man s account chronicles the most turbulent growth in United States history These were expansions in technology global influence wealth power popular unrest and human rights These changed America from an isolationist racist enclave to the present confusing liberating imperialistic and ideologically divided envy of the world
