No Generals In The House Faith Facts And Fatherhood:

No Generals In the House Joseph Woodley, 2014-12-30 Men of God it s time to stand up You have been equipped through the Holy Spirit and the Word of God to invade the enemy s camp and destroy the strategies he has used against you and your family God has already promised you the victory if you would just choose to stand up and fight You cannot win the war for your children and your children s children wishing for a change to come You can t be a father from the sidelines and you cannot be the man you have been called to be sitting on the sidelines disengaged from reality The general is the most senior rank He is responsible for major areas of command which include combat readiness training and supervision The general is the leader of whatever home he serves He takes responsibility whenever things are good and he does the same whenever things appear to be going bad The general does not abandon his post because he understands that his subordinates look up to him and rely on him to be their leader

the Fathers explores the Virginia Slavery Debate of 1831 1832 conducted in the House of Delegates This is possibly the greatest debate to have occurred in any southern state before the Civil War The speeches in this book provide for the first time ever an unedited version of that debate where many of the sons of America s Founders deliberated over the necessity of emancipating the slaves in Old Dominion In August 1831 Nat Turner led the most successful slave rebellion in America s history killing some 60 men women and children This insurrection provided the historical backdrop to the proposal for a gradual emancipation plan The forces for emancipation led by Thomas Jefferson s grandson Thomas Jefferson Randolph were defeated in the course of the debate as the members of the House of Delegates rejected that it was a necessity to free the slaves As a result rift between what is now Virginia and Western Virginia developed never to heal Some in the debates believed slaves had the same rights as every human being Those who balked at emancipation diminished slavery as an evil and came closer to the view that the slaves were mere property They affirmed that the slave was property and rejected the natural rights grounding of the Founding In this collection of primary source material which consists of the speeches made public to the press and the people the reader will be able to decide just how close the emancipation forces attached themselves to the laws of Nature and Nature s God The reader will also be able to decipher how far many Virginians departed from not only the Declaration of Independence but the Virginia Declaration of Rights The Meaning of Prayer
