

A closer look at Operation Sea Lion's west wing, where the German Ninth Army lands two corps on beaches from Brighton to Boxhill. Although the original plan called for these divisions to land on S-Day, we're imagining the difficulties inherent in amphibious operations (combined with the rushed preparations) have forced the Germans to make these landings in phases. In our imagined campaign, this delay has allowed the British to muster the bulk of 1st Armoured Division for a major counterattack at Burgess Hill.
