

Women in Judaism

- The role of women in traditional Judaism has been extremely misrepresented and misunderstood.
- Jewish women are not as lowly as many modern people think. The position of women in halakhah (Jewish Law) -which dates back to the biblical period- is better than the position of women in American as recent as a century ago.
- Many important feminist leaders of the 20th century, Gloria Steinem and Betty Friedan are Jewish women.
- Some people suggest that this not a coincidence: the respect accorded to women in Jewish tradition is a part of their ethnic culture.
- In traditional Judaism, women are seen as separate but equal. Women's obligations and responsibilities are different from a man but no less important and at times may be considered more important.
